

What context do I (you)
work in?

Chris Pajak – University of Leeds

About me

- I have no background in law
- TEFL since 2003
- EAP (English for Academic Purposes) since 2013
- I have taught preessional/in-sessional for law since 2016

Preessional - 6 weeks

- Students IELTS 6 (CEFR B2)
- Unit 1 - The Legal System/Statutory Interpretation
- Unit 2 – IHR/IP/Corporate/WTO law
- Reading lists - cases/articles/textbooks
- Summative Tasks – essay/seminar
- Content-based
- Aims to introduce key concepts
- To provide an awareness of genres, language and discourses in law
- To give sts opportunities to work with this in written and spoken tasks

In-sessional

- Secondment
- Optional for all PGT law students
- Sessions then 1-2-1 work
- Responsive to the semester and needs
- Navigating academic culture
- Assessment/good writing
- The essay
- Partner brief
- Annotated Bibliography

In short

- Preessional – structured, a complete picture for sts and teachers
 - In-sessional – responsive at sts point of need
 - Institutional context
 - Developing (some) expertise
-
- Thank you, any questions please?