CSCMP Roundtables

Connect • Educate • Develop

Roundtables are CSCMP's local chapters. There are more than 60 worldwide roundtables managed by a volunteer network of supply chain professionals just like you. Each CSCMP member is assigned to his or her local roundtable.

Get connected with your local roundtable

Roundtable events connect you to top supply chain professionals in your area and provide access to networking opportunities, expert speakers, hands-on learning and more.

If you want to improve your public speaking, learn financial management, serve as a mentor, or increase your sales and marketing skills, volunteer with your local roundtable. Level up your career and achieve real world experience in a low-risk, high-reward environment. Many supply chain professionals participate in roundtable events and are ready to become your next customer, mentor or solution provider.

Event participants report the following benefits of connecting with local roundtables:

- Gain leadership experience
- Create long-term partnerships
- Stay abreast of new developments across the industry
- Develop best practices in general operations, talent management and more

Extend your connection to the global supply chain community

Broaden your connection to the larger community of supply chain professionals by joining CSCMP today. Exclusive membership benefits include member-only resources, professional mentoring, training and certification. For more information, visit cscmp.org.

"I volunteer because it's great working with like-minded professionals who want to connect and improve the SCM community. Whether it's networking or education, great people want to come together and share."

Christopher Pride, Manager, Supply Chain Engineering, CDW
CSCMP Chicago Roundtable

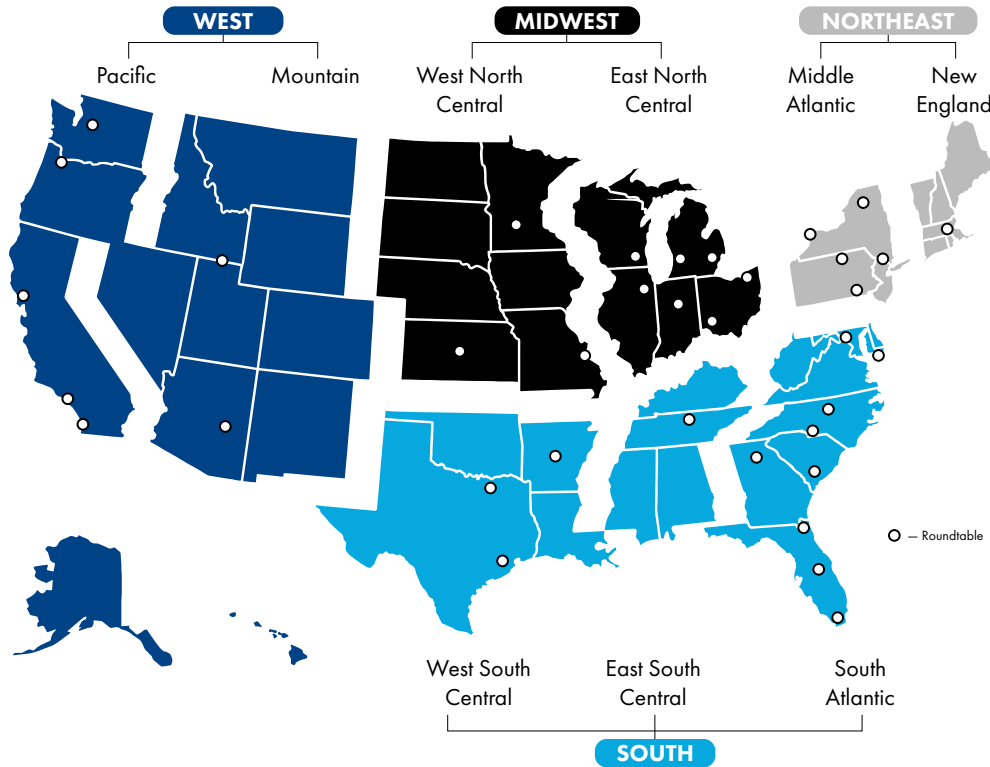

"I attend local roundtable events to meet other professionals in my domain. Working as a remote associate, it's not always easy to find comradery with similar professions. Meeting other local professionals has helped me better understand how to work through pressures specific to our region and given me a great support network in this profession as a whole."

Victoria Brown, Director of Solutions, Blue Yonder
CSCMP New England Roundtable, Young Professionals Committee and EDGE Conference Committee
