Award winning blues band, Johnny Fink and the Intrusion announce the release of their debut CD entitled simply JFI.

Johnny Fink and the Intrusion used to be known as the “Best Kept Secret in the Midwest Blues Scene” among local blues and blues rock enthusiasts.

That was until they won the 2015 Cincy Blues Society band challenge...and made the semi-finals at the 2016 IBC. Then, Johnny himself won the 2016 Cincy Blues challenge in the “solo” category... AND the band won the 2016 Dayton Ohio Blues challenge.

The band placed in the finals at the 2017 IBC.

The first single off the CD, “Let’s hear some blues” has been included on the 33rd IBC compilation CD with rave reviews and tremendous airplay.

The CD JFI won the 2017 Cincy Blues Society award for “ best self produced cd” ....and is currently in the final 12 in that category for the 34th IBC.

The secret is definitely out...
