

September 2022 Special

According to Inside Dental Technology, the three most important factors a dentist will look for when choosing a dental laboratory are communication, knowledge and consistency<sup>1</sup>. This is what we strive for with each of our valued customers. Dental Design Studios is one of Delta Dental's value-added partners, which offers you exclusive preferred pricing. These reduced rates apply not only to your Delta Dental PPO™ patients, but to your whole patient base.
