

James Fishback

James Fishback is the founder and executive director of Incubate Debate, the only no-cost, free-speech debate league in America.

Incubate Debate is where young Americans debate timely and timeless issues.

James has received recognition from the Mayor of Miami Dade County, the Mayor of Fort Lauderdale, and from the Freedoms Foundation for his work with Incubate Debate. He has also received support from Republicans such as Governor Chris Christie, Congressman Scott Franklin, and Supreme Court Justice Gorsuch.

James was born and raised in Broward County, FL, and lives in Madison County, FL today. He is the author of "The Hijacking of High School Debate" series in The Free Press.

In June of 2023, U.S. Presidential Candidate Vivek Ramaswamy said James "will become a major Gen Z star in our pro-America movement."

James has been featured on Fox News on numerous occasions within the past month speaking on the importance of open debate in American politics.
