

Regina Piazza

Regina Piazza is a 13-year home educator with Classical Conversations and has held multiple roles including Tutor, Director, and Support Representative. She is a former Air Force veteran and two-time business owner who ran for Florida State Senate for the first time in 2022. She currently works to preserve education and religious freedom as Classical Conversation's Florida State Advocate.

Regina is absolutely committed to healthy families as the foundation for a flourishing society. She has fostered children and taken in children from distressed families, while raising her own 3 children, including twins. Regina is featured in Episode 24 of the Refining Rhetoric podcast, "Why a Homeschool Mom Ran for Senate with Regina Piazza." Her thought-provoking piece, "A Generation of Transformation: Radical Reversal of Culture from Family to Government" can be found at www.homeschoolfreedomactioncenter.com.

Regina resides in the Panhandle of Florida and is married to Colonel Thomas Piazza, M.D., USAF, retired, who is a local Medical Director caring for active duty Service Members with Traumatic Brain Injury, Post Traumatic Stress, and chronic pain.
