La montaña nos pone la vida en perspectiva

Coming back to myself as part of a bigger intelligent universe
Mountains means home to me, and I always feel I'm in the right place when I'm walking in the Nature

Action and reflection for Earth, us and everyone people, animals, and all visible and invisible creatures

Mountains give us so much energy and power
Spirituale en Emotionele gezondheid

For me connection with mountains means being deeply aware of every step we take on this ground
It's not the mountain we conquer, but ourselves

A place to pray in. Yes. That's nature for us.
