Dear Pat,

Maggie and I would like to take this time to thank you for wonderful work you did on our house.

As you know when a home owner decides to have improvements done to their house it is an investment not to be taken lightly. In the process, we had several contractors look at what we wanted done and provide quotes. During this process, I must confess that from the first moment I met you, I felt very comfortable with you. You took the time to explain what would occur and went into the finest of details as to how everything would be done.

My decision to have you do the job was made that day as I was very impressed with your knowledge and the detail you went in to. Additionally, it was refreshing to know you were actually going to be on site and doing the work yourself.

During the project I was even more impressed with the results as it was even better than I had anticipated.

You are truly a man of your word and one of the best contractors I have had the privilege of doing business with. You can rest assured that if I have a need in the future for more work I will save myself the time and trouble of calling around for quotes as I now know I only need to make one call and that is to you.

If at any time you should need a reference you are more than welcome to give our name and phone number.

Again, thank you Pat.

Yours truly,

Randy & Maggie Kleckner

To Whom It May Concern,

Pat Johnson, Jr. of Johnson & Son did several projects for us on our home in McKinney, TX. He not only was prompt, courteous, and very economical, he did an amazing job!

We needed three different jobs done: plumbing, roofing, and siding repair. We thought we might need three different people, but Pat was able to do them all well. We would highly recommend Pat Johnson and his company, Johnson & Son to anyone.

You may feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern:

Re: Pat Johnson of Johnson and Son

It gives us pleasure to make the highest recommendation for both the person and the work of Pat Johnson. Pat installed vinyl siding this summer on our two-story house, vintage 1924. It was a job we had dreaded, one we acted on only when necessity demanded, but the results delight us.

As persons who have extensive backgrounds in the study of art and of architecture, we are aware of design and construction quality, and we can be quite demanding. Contrary to our original anxieties, the siding was applied with expert craftsmanship and in a manner both attractive and effective. For the rest of our days we will thank Pat Johnson, a steady family-oriented professional we were fortunate to find after careful research.

Pat Johnson showed us honesty, intelligence, aesthetic awareness, and the ability to think along with his customers. He made hard work seem easy through forethought and personal strength. The basics plus specialized technical aspects were learned working with his late father, whose business he now owns. Beyond the obvious work on our home, he helped us maintain architectural integrity by devising details we desired. Working almost entirely alone (a mode we preferred over a team), he demonstrated thorough mastery.

To meet and observe a person so pleasant while persevering without hesitation has been like a gift to us. Our enjoyment of our "new" house with its handsome and lasting finish we owe to Pat Johnson, a person we now hold as a good friend and a rare individual who knows his field thoroughly and produces a totally satisfactory product.

re. Pat Johnson
Window Replacement

To Whom It May Concern:

We are writing this letter following the replacement of 14 windows, done on our home by Pat Johnson. It only took yesterday and today to complete a BEAUTIFUL job, from start to finish, including clean-up. We are quite pleased, not only with the new windows but, also with the quality of work.

We heard of Pat from one of our co-workers who had work done by him. We called him immediately because of the great things that man had to say about him, and we found all of those things to be true. From the first (and only) time we met with Pat, we felt extremely confident in his knowledge of his work, as well as his trustworthiness and work ethics.

The first day on the job, we did not hesitate to leave Pat alone at our house when we had to go somewhere. We returned to find half the job done, and no one would even know our home had been in disarray. That evening we had company and the rest of the job was completed.

We highly recommend Pat Johnson for any and all home improvement jobs and look forward to the next one he can do for us when needed.

God Bless you, Pat!

Sincerely,
Pat and Donna Burk

Dear Pat;

Yvonne and I want to take this opportunity to personally say THANK YOU for the excellent job you did on our building.

We sought and received several quotations on this project. Not only were you the most reasonable you also did all the work yourself which eliminated the confusion of a "middle person" that is always trying to either raise the price or find an excuse to not perform as we suggest.

We were a little apprehensive at first but after we saw how much time and effort you expended to do the work exactly right, down to the most precise detail, all our concerns disappeared.

Your knowledge of what can and can't be done with the product is extraordinary. The special moldings around the exposed conduit, the extra time and dedication to get those large doors covered and trimmed took not only time but talent.

You can classify your self as a true ARTIST.

Pat, any time you need a reference please do not hesitate to give our name and phone number.

Once again, thank you Pat.

Yours Truly
