ZOOM HEARING GUIDELINES

1. This is an official court proceeding. Dress and act as if you were in a courtroom: no driving, eating, or anything else you would not do in a courtroom.
2. Log on early. Test your camera, speaker, and microphone in advance. Know how to mute and unmute yourself.
3. Use your first and last name as your profile/screen name.
4. Stay on mute until the judicial officer identifies that it is your turn to talk. Do not speak over other participants.
5. Keep your camera on unless you have permission from the judge or magistrate.
6. To the extent possible, avoid moving your device around during the hearing; and participate from a quiet place. Try to minimize people and other distractions.
7. All documents to be used in a hearing should be readily available electronically for use via screen sharing and should also be exchanged in advance if possible.

If the case becomes adversarial, or if the use or exchange of exhibits is unduly burdensome,
the matter may be continued and an in-person hearing required.
