Cairo Eubanks is the Global Correspondent for Global Oved Dei Seminary and University (GODSU), an interfaith e-learning institution. Her portfolio has taken her to Jamaica, Brazil, Morocco, Senegal, and Azerbaijan, as well as throughout the world. Cairo commenced a United Nations student internship through New Future Foundation (NFF), under the guidance of UN Goodwill Ambassador to Africa, Queen Mother Dr. Blakely, because of her interest in diplomacy and international affairs.

In January 2018, Cairo left the United States for Tamil Nadu, India to work with a residential school that teaches marginalized children from 4 years old to 18 years old, as their mission is to break the cycle of poverty through education. Cairo is the 2020 Fellow for the New Leaders Council and is taking part in the six-month training program.
