

Bring a uniquely

QUALIFIED RISK DIRECTOR[®]

to your board

With skills and experience that distinguish them from the crowd, Qualified Risk Directors[®] bring in-demand perspective to the board's strategic governance of risk.

Deeply Experienced

Demonstrated experience managing in positions of increasing responsibility.

Forward-Looking

Highly skilled, forward-looking, and anticipatory in their approach to governance.

Risk-Savvy

Distinguished ability to link corporate strategy to the positive governance of risk-taking, always asking if you are taking enough risk.

Leaders

C-suite and board members, senior executives, all having demonstrated industry leadership.

Trustworthy

An essential and earned trait confirmed by peers.

Business-Focused

Managed significant operations, risk budgets, or portfolios through dynamic and challenging cycles.

Strategic

Align the governance of risk-taking with forward-looking strategic goals.

Highly Educated

Often possessing multiple degrees, graduating from highly regarded professional development programs.

Diverse

From diverse industries, experiences, and geographies, and having, perhaps most importantly, a uniquely dynamic mindset that complements the work of existing board members.

Qualified

Graduates of an education and review process that results in permission to use the Qualified Risk Director[®] designation.
