President's Message

Dear Members,

I am sure this finds you in the midst of preparations for the upcoming holiday season. Whether it be Thanksgiving, Christmas, Hanukah, or even the fall festivities, we are all so very busy! With the temperatures dropping and snow on the horizon (oh my), I find myself finally getting rid of wearing my flip flops all the time! 'Tis the season for warmer clothes, and I guess I must recognize that! The bright side is that it is such perfect weather to work on all of my sewing projects and quilt tops just waiting for me to finally quilt them! I have a few UFO's and hope that I am certainly not the only one with a few □!

Please note that we have cancelled our Charity Quilt session for November and will resume in January. We have plenty to work on together and look forward to members being able to both sew and socialize with each other! Also, Shirley has been working on putting programs together for the upcoming 2020 calendar year. She has some great ideas that you are sure to want to be at our meetings for! Let's hope that the winter weather cooperates.

We will celebrate the holiday season together on Wednesday, December 11th at Peppe's Bistro in East Stroudsburg. At this special holiday dinner (remember it was voted to have the guild contribute $15.00 per person to the cost of the meal) we will again share Cups of Kindness and host the Tricky Tray as has been done in the past. We surely hope to see you be able to attend and share in this great fellowship.

*Piecefully,
Vicki Pede*

Quilt Fest information will be presented at our next meeting

Christmas party will be December 11 at Pepe's restaurant. Menu & reservations will be taken at our November meeting; please bring a check when you register. We will have the cup of kindness again this year.

Calendar

NOTE: The Bucklebee Bags scheduled for Saturday, November 16, 2019 has been cancelled.

November 13: Each member will be able to make two holiday ornaments with kits and materials provided for all.

December 11: Annual Holiday Dinner at Peppe's, East Stroudsburg

Cost to guild members will be $13.50. Our guild is covering the additional cost. Please bring a check payable to PMQG, if you are planning on attending. Let Shirley know your choice of entree, at our meeting Nov. 13: Chicken Parmigiana with Linguine Marinara or Chicken Francese with Lemon White Wine Sauce.

Cup of Kindness – This is optional for members who choose to participate. Please bring a cup of some kind to the Holiday dinner. This can contain anything that you can think another member would enjoy. Some ideas are perhaps candy or small items such as sewing notions or even fabric. Also include a note from you so that the receiver knows who to thank for such kindness.

Holiday Dinner Tricky Tray – Members of our guild are encouraged to bring in some sort of gift or basket for our Tricky Tray table at the holiday dinner. Previous dinners have included such tricky tray items as wine fabric, chocolate, sewing items, plants, holiday decorations, handmade items, quilted items. This is lots of fun for all involved. We purchase tickets to win items at the beginning of the dinner. The money generated through the Tricky Tray is then donated to a local worthy cause that members will choose at the November meeting. This is certainly well-received at this time of year by charities/organizations who utilize the funds to help those who need it most.

Quilt Fest 2020

We have a date: April 18th 2020 will be our 2nd Quilt Fest. It will be held at the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church.

It will be the same basic format as our first show. There will be lots more information in January. Start thinking about which quilts you will want to have displayed. We will be looking for at least one quilt from every member!!!

Charity Quilts

Charity quilts has been busy and productive. Guild members have been very kind and giving of their time and energy and for some their precious fabric.

Thank you to Mary Dickison, Vicki Pede, Ann Wingert, Donna Faulstick, Pat Cudney, Sarah Person, Mary Archibald, Laura Lyman, Kathleen McCarthy, Judy Mehl and Lorraine Hare for the placemats which they turned in at the last meeting. On October 23rd, Judy Mehl, Sheryl Flatt, Kathy Parrish and Ann Wingert met at the library to work on charity quilts at the monthly meeting.

I had the pleasure of delivering a lot of quilts to area community organizations. 5 lap quilts to the nursing home, 5 baby quilts to Angels Baby Closet, 5 children's quilts to Women's Resources and 7 adult lap quilts to the Cancer Center/Hospice House in the past two weeks. That is a lot of quilts!!

There will not be a charity quilt meeting the 4th Wednesday in November or December due to the upcoming holidays. The Fellowship Meeting schedule for November was also canceled due to Thanksgiving.

There will be lots of kits for Christmas place mats available at the November Business meeting as well as kits for lap quilts. I will be accepting Christmas place mats at the December Holiday Dinner and will deliver them to Meals on Wheels later that week for them to disburse to their clients for the holidays. Thank you to all who participate in this ongoing program to bring quilts to members of our community.
