President's Message

Dear Members,

Happy September! The Board met on August 19th via zoom, and discussed the fact that there is currently no safe meeting place. Prior to that, I had contacted the library to inquire about the situation. I was informed that there will be no groups in the library at least through the current year. Also, I had inquired about the library's information that they were exploring an online venue for groups, and as of this date, have not heard back. Please know that we are thinking of each other and anxious to see all you have been doing!

The Board decided to monitor the situation on a monthly basis and are looking for ideas from the membership. There has been an offer of a no cost online program for October, but that is up for Board discussion. I apologize for this uncertainty, but I do think we all understand as these are uncertain times. Please note that there will also be no collection of dues from members for this year. We are fortunate that we can cover our costs for things like insurance with the money that we have!

On a more positive note, it honestly was fun to meet via zoom because we could actually "be with" each other. Aside from our quilting business, some folks talked about what they had been doing, the exciting happenings in their lives and what they have been sewing. To be totally honest, I have enjoyed taking classes online, too. Not only am I learning, but have been able to connect with teachers from various parts of the country that I may not have otherwise even thought of! Google is an amazing tool and has enabled some to find a number of free opportunities as well. Hope to see you at least at a fabric store sometime soon!

*Piecefully,
Vicki Pedé*

Charity Quilts

On a personal note, I moved this summer to a new home in Stroudsburg. I am now located in a fairly convenient location. If anyone has quilts to donate they can be dropped off at my house or I can arrange to pick up. The nursing homes, children and youth and Women's Resources are eagerly accepting lap quilts. At this time Meals on Wheels is not distributing placemats but will be in the future. We do still get some requests for face masks for those who are not tired of making them.

Thank you to Sheryl Flatt and Sarah Pierson for their donations of adult lap quilts. I do still have kits available for lap quilts. I will bring them to our get together September 9th. Members are welcome to pick up kits from my home.
