President's Message:

Hello Quilting Friends,

July 1st? Really? Didn't we just start June? And wasn't summer supposed to start just a couple of weeks ago? Did anyone tell Mother Nature? So far, it feels like spring has just started! Maybe summer will last way through September.

The Penn Jersey Quilter's Symposium a few weeks ago was very informative. I've collected quite a few ideas for future meetings. In the fall, the Symposium is going to host a lecture by the man in charge of the quilts at Kutztown Folk Festival. Guild board members will be attending and we'll be able to ask questions as well.

I've signed up to attend my very first quilt retreat! I know many of you have attended retreats, but remember, I'm just getting back into the quilting swing of things. In order to make it all a bit easier, I ordered a quilt kit from Craftsy for the retreat weekend. But the fabrics are so luscious that I'm having trouble keeping my hands off them! I'm also hoping to get a good idea of what these retreats are all about. It's one thing to have someone tell you about it; it's totally different when you get to experience it first hand.

Our guild year is almost at an end. I feel like we just got started. There's still so much Jane and I want to do in the in the New Year. With your support I know we'll have a great time together. Here's a little tease: Plans for the 2016 Challenge are already underway! It's going to be different <again> this year! Nothing like last year, but different just the same. All the details will be announced at the September meeting. Don't miss it!

Keep on Stitchin',
Lois

Minutes: General Meeting: 06/10/2015

Jane Maughan the Vice President introduced the guest speaker, Barbara Dann to the guild members and she proceeded with the program. There were 30 members present at the meeting and one guest, Donna Faulstick. Lois Kirkwood announced there would be a fifteen to twenty minute break for refreshments.

The Secretary's Report as printed in the newsletter was approved by Barb Ebert and seconded by Marie Guidry. The Treasurer's Report as printed in the newsletter was approved by Barb Hall and seconded by Sheri Seip. All members were in favor. Lois Kirkwood the President announced that we will have to vote on a new board in July, so we need a nominating committee. Two members are needed to volunteer for the committee who will bring a slate of officers to the meeting. The president read the descriptions for each position that is open. At this time we will be looking for a Secretary, Financial Secretary and Treasurer. The president announced we could not proceed further without the volunteers from the membership. Sheri Seip and Marie Schriever volunteered.

Activities: Jane Maughan, Vice President congratulated the members whose challenge quilts are now hanging at the Bar Association Building, Lorraine Hare's first place challenge piece and Lois Kirkwood's piece that was bought by the Bar Association.

The July 1st meeting is our trip to the Countrie Quilterie in Effort. We will meet there at 6:00pm. Members will receive a free fat quarter and a 10% discount. The address for the store is in the newsletter. We need to decide what to do as far as food is concerned. Everyone agreed that brown bagging your own food is the way we are going. You will need to bring a lawn chair to sit on.

Picnic: Jane will report more on the picnic at the July meeting. You may want to bring a lawn chair to this as well, if you do not want to have to climb over the bench seats at the tables. The picnic will be 6:00pm and we will not be grilling. The newsletter directions will get you to the park. You will need to bring your own place settings and table ware.

Ways and Means: Raised $25.00. Winners were Cos Cunningham, Barb Hall, Marie Guidry, Pat Cudney Sarah Pierson and Peggy P. Chiniewicz.

Old Business: None at this time.

New Business: It was announced that members should pay their dues with a check for $25.00 as it will be easier for the Treasurer and Financial Secretary to keep track of the membership. Dues are due to be paid at the August picnic.

Survey: Jane Maughan would like the members to direct questions for the next survey by the July meeting. It was asked if anyone was going to the Milford Show and if they are going to please report on the show.

Symposium: Lois Kirkwood reported that many topics were discussed at the symposium, social media, Kutztown Folk Festival, ways of getting new members.

Show and Tell: Mary Dickison, Janella Macbeth, Barb Hall, Sue Andrews and Mary Santoro. Janella Macbeth gave two quilts to be raffled off through ways and means.

Respectfully submitted by Lorraine Hare

Calendar:

July 1: Program: An Evening at the "Country Quilterie" in Effort

We are taking a short road trip! Meet up at the "Country Quilterie" quilt shop in Effort, at 6:00 P.M. The address is 2783 route 115, Effort, Pennsylvania, 18330. Bring a lawn chair and a dish to share, as we will picnic outdoors (or indoors if necessary) after shopping. The quilt class area is large enough for us to use to enjoy refreshments in the event of rain, and the owners are prepared to permit us to use the area if needed. To learn more about the shop go to www.countryquilterie.com.

August 5: Picnic at Mountain View Park, Tannersville

Light rain or shine (but not if we get a hurricane) we will celebrate our annual summer picnic under cover in a pavilion at the Mountain View Park. If there is any last minute change due to weather, we will send out an email to members with email addresses, and will move the picnic back to the Eastern Monroe Public Library where we regularly meet. If you don't have an email address please buddy up with a member who does to get last minute information about the picnic. Please sign up at the May, June or July meetings to bring a dish for the picnic. In addition to your dish to share, please ALSO bring 2 cups of salad fixings. Guild will supply salad greens; at the June meeting we will decide whether to use the grills. Bring your own place setting and let's also continue the tradition of groups of members coordinating their table's decorating theme. After dinner we will have a super Show and Tell, with the Ph.inished candidates presenting their completed UFO's. Certificates will be issued to those who actually phinish!

We will be in Pavilion #1, directions to the Park follow and also will be on the Guild website:

Continue on Sullivan Trail, at about 1 mile from the Crossings you will pass The Loft on your left, it is a ski shop. Continue another .2 miles, pass the Barley Creek Pub on your left and almost immediately make a right into Mountain View Park. Pass the Park Office, go straight up hill and follow the signs to Pavilion #1.

Barbara and Mary are award winning quilt artists and their quilts have been published in many quilting magazines and have been featured in Keepsake Quilting and Clotilde. They were born the fourth and sixth children in a close knit family in south Jersey. Their mother taught these Jersey girls garment sewing at the young age of ten.
