President's Message

“There are many things from which I might have derived good, by which I have not profited, I dare say, Christmas among them. But I am sure I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come round as a good time; a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time: the only time I know of, in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them as if they really were fellow-passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys. And therefore, though it has never put a scrap of gold or silver in my pocket, I believe that it has done me good, and will do me good; and I say, God bless it!”

Charles Dickens
“A Christmas Carol”

My very best wishes to you all!

Minutes

October:

Meeting was called to order by Jane at 6:30. A quilt and pillow made by members of our guild was presented to Christine Bearn.

Peggy introduced Don Seikel from St. Luke's Hospital on the Monroe Campus and presented him with a quilt for the hospital made up of International Sunbonnet Sues from a guild challenge. Kathy Parrish introduced our guest speaker, Joann Lepore. After her presentation the business part of the meeting commenced. Secretary minutes were accepted by Suzanne Andrews and seconded by Lois Kirkwood. Guests were welcomed - Sylvia, Helen, and Marcia. Our December meeting is our get together at Peppes Restaurant on December 7th. The Budget committee passed out the proposed budget to members to look at. The budget was discussed by members. The Bingo Committee will met before the guild meetings starting in January. Show and Tell of quilted items was presented by Laura Lyman, Patricia Howland, Linda V., Kathy Rockliss, Sarah Pierson, Donna Conto, Barb Hall, Marie Schriever, Jane Maughan, and Kathy Parrish. Meeting was adjourned with a motion from Laura Lyman and seconded by Kathleen Rockliss.

November:

At 6:30 the meeting was started with Kathy Parrish the Christmas dinner and Peppe's and she was collecting money for the dinner. Then ornament kits were handed out and we worked on our ornaments and indulged in delicious refreshments.

At 7:15 the meeting was called to order by Kathy Parrish. The Treasurers Reports talked about the budget. Lois Kirkwood accepted and Anne Marie Kizer seconded the motion. Financial Secretary asked members to pick up their membership cards.

Monthly newsletters will be mailed to members. At the December Christmas party the money earned from the Tricky Tray will go to a worthy cause. Sheri Seip motioned and Laura Lyman seconded that the money be donated to the library. All other members agreed. The meeting was adjourned at 7:42 with Lois Kirkwood making a motion and Sheri Seip seconding the motion.

Show and Tell was presented by Kathleen Hahn, Donna Faustick, Sheryl Flatt, Anne Marie Kizer, Kathy Parrish, Marie Guidry, and Linda Doll

Upcoming Surveys

A few years ago, we used a web service called “Survey Monkey” to survey Guild members to learn their interests, preferences and suggestions for Guild. It proved to be very helpful in our planning.

Before our January 2017 meeting, members will receive 2 surveys by email—one will be very similar to our last survey. It’s a broad inquiry about many Guild activities and your interests. The second will focus on your interests in and preferences for making charity quilts. Laura Lyman, with the help of Judy Mehl and Sarah Pierson, has energetically revived our charity quilt activities. Your input in the survey will help them in their planning.

At the January Meeting I will share the survey results with you. Because of the way the survey is tallied, we can only take input online. If you don’t receive email, but want to participate, just send me an email address for one of your friends or family members, and we can add that to the distribution of the survey so that you can participate.

Our New Marketing Card

We have a new marketing card that takes the place of the folded brochure we used to place in quilt shops and community locations to promote our Guild. Soon you will see it in our local shops. Think about other places we can post copies and let us all know at the January meeting of your ideas to promote our Guild with the marketing card.

Quilt Bingo

All members interested in helping with Quilt Bingo are reminded that starting in January, a BRIEF Quilt Bingo Meeting will be held at 5:30 sharp, before all of our Member Meetings in 2017 through June.

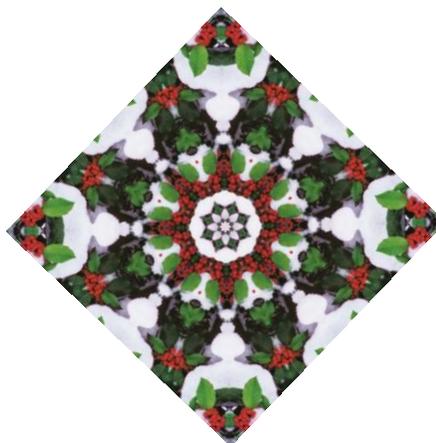

Quilt Bingo is set for Sunday, July 9th at the Moose Lodge in East Stroudsburg. Our regular July Meeting is the Wednesday before that Sunday.

This is our only major fund raising event in 2017, so we need the support of every member in some capacity. At the January Meeting, we’ll sort out Committees and assignments for the event. We will also start the process of identifying the quilts we need for the prizes. Please do your best to attend these meetings, and to give your time and energy to our 2017 Quilt Bingo event.

BOM / Charity

Since many of us will be busy with holiday activities, there will not be a December Block of the Month. Please contact me to get any remaining blocks from previous months so I can complete those quilts. Thanks for all your help on this great project!

Happy Holidays to all, Laura Lyman

Activities

Tea Time: The Tea Social starts at 6:00 P.M. and gives members the chance to arrive early, socialize and enjoy a cup of tea. Members bring their own favorite mugs. Various teas, sugar and milk are supplied. Our speaker meetings and programs have run more smoothly, with fewer distractions, since members have had the opportunity to socialize before the program.

Wear Your Name Tag: Please wear your name tag to help everyone greet and speak to each other by name. If you forget your name tag, stop at the Sign In Sheet for a paper Hello My Name Is tag!

Celebration Quilts:

Do you have a special occasion coming up? Or know someone who does? Let us help you celebrate. The birth of a baby; a wedding; a 25th anniversary; a 50th or 60th anniversary are important occasions. It is important to celebrate.
