- Emilia Sykes is the Democratic nominee for Congress in Ohio's newly re-drawn 13th District. Emilia graduated from Kent State University and went on to the University of Florida, where she earned both a Juris Doctor with a certificate in family law and a Master of Public Health. In 2014, Sykes was elected to represent Ohio's 34th state District in the Ohio House of Representatives, making history as Ohio's first Black woman lawmaker under 30. In 2019, she was elected Minority Leader. As state representative, Ms. Sykes has fought for tax cuts for middle-class and working families, funding for high-speed internet, and higher wages and safer conditions for Ohio's workers. <https://www.emiliasykesforcongress.com/>

- Dr. Yadira Caraveo is the Democratic nominee for Congress in Colorado's New District 8. Dr. Yadira Caraveo is a pediatrician and a Democratic member of the Colorado House of Representatives running for Congress to build on her life's work of advocating for children and families. Dr. Caraveo's parents came to Colorado from a small town in Mexico looking for a better life. She attended medical school at the University of Colorado and became the first physician in her family. Dr. Caraveo, who is fluent in Spanish, chose to be a pediatrician in Adams County. She proudly serves a Latino community whose families are often unable to find providers who speak their language and understand their culture <https://www.caraveoforcongress.com/>
