Code of Conduct Agreement for Baseball Players, Baseball Coaches & Parents

The Scott Athletic Association, Inc. (SAA) has created this "Code of Conduct" for the expressed purpose of ensuring a safe, educational and enjoyable arena for our communities' youth sports programs. By signing this form, we (as parents and participants) agree to adhere to this code of conduct and understand the consequences of our actions.

-Please share this information with your players-

- Coaches are available to discuss your child's abilities upon request. This request must be done at the appropriate time and preferably in private. Coaches reserve the right to include their entire coaching staff during any discussion.
- Coaches are the ultimate decision makers on your child's abilities on the field. Playing your child in any position before he is ready can result in a potential injury. Additionally, your child's inexperience or unwillingness to follow the coach's instructions may cause harm to another player.
- Following a coach's instructions is mandatory. Failure to follow a coach's instructions can impact playing time for your child.
- Tardiness and arriving to practice and/or games without equipment may result in an impact to playing time.
- At no time before, during or after a game or practice, should a parent confront a coach for any reason, unless there is considered to be an emergency regarding the physical well-being or safety of a player. Even in this event, the conversation must be held in a formal, respectful and quiet fashion. Shouting at volunteers across the fence at games can result in immediate dismissal or expulsion.
- At no time during a game or practice should a parent place themselves on the game or practice field without the permission of the head coach of his child's team unless it involves a physical injury to their child.
- At no time, during a game or practice, should a coach, parent or player allow themselves to be drawn into a confrontation in the presence of any players.
- At no time during the course of a game or practice, should a coach, parent or player use profanity.
- At no time during the course of a game or practice, should a coach, parent or player misuse or intentionally damage any equipment in their possession.
- At no time during the course of a game or practice, should a coach, parent or player be involved in an abusive (verbal or physical) confrontation with another parent, coach, official or player.
- There will be no use of alcohol or controlled substance at any SAA event.
- The use of email, text messages, or ANY social media to attack the character or reputation or SAA volunteers, coaches and/or members of SAA or partnering associations for any reason will result in immediate eligibility for further participation in the current or future seasons.

-Consequences to the individual(s) for violating any of the above-

- Depending on the severity of the incident, the Executive Board of Directors may consider immediate expulsion of the violator from participation or attendance with the associates (without refund of any paid fees).
  - 1st Violation – may result in a one game suspension up to a full season suspension. Violators may be suspended from all activities until the Executive Board of Directors meet to review and discuss the incident.
  - 2nd Violation or subsequent violations – may result in immediate dismissal from the association without refund.

All complaints must be submitted, in writing and signed by the complainant, to the Secretary of the SAA Executive Board of Directors within 48 hours of the incident. Once authenticated, the Executive Board of Directors will convene within 48 hours to review the complaint and determine what, if any, action may be taken. The decision of the Executive Board of Directors at that time is final.

I agree that, as a Participant/Parent for the Scott Athletic Association, I will abide by the SAA Code of Conduct. I also agree to explain this code of conduct to all members of family and friends who would like to attend any SAA events. I further understand and accept the consequences that my or my players actions may cause to myself or my player of failing to abide by the code of conduct.

I _____, have given my permission for my child, _____, to sign this form. I understand, and they understand this code of conduct.
