

Stephanie Catania: Board Member, Alliance League Matching Services, Inc. (ALMS)

Stephanie Catania has a lifelong passion for serving individuals with disabilities, dedicating much of her time to ensuring inclusion, accessibility, and support for those in need. Her extensive volunteer work has made a lasting impact on the communities she serves, earning her the recognition of Volunteer of the Year in Saint Lucie County.

Beyond her advocacy for disability rights, Stephanie is deeply committed to environmental conservation, with a special focus on preserving Florida's shoreline ecosystems and protecting its waterways. She has served in community cleanups and hurricane relief efforts in the past, helping to restore and maintain natural habitats while supporting those affected by disasters.

Stephanie also has a love for music and singing, finding joy in performing with her choir and using music as a way to uplift and bring people together. As a Board Member of Alliance League Matching Services, Inc. (ALMS), she continues to champion causes that protect both people and the planet, ensuring that communities remain strong, inclusive, and environmentally conscious.
