

The First Couple Quiz ANSWERS...ALL FALSE

	ALL FALSE
1.		Actually, God created over six days and rested on the seventh. Genesis 2:2
2.		There are two accounts, but they do differ in a number of ways. Scholars believe that because of the Hebrew oral tradition, and the final writing of occurring until the period of Israel's captivity by Babylon, there were probably at least four key authors (they determined this by different writing styles, etc.) Additionally, it should be noted that God is vast and all powerful in the first account, yet close and personal in the second account. Perhaps God can't be presented in just one way? Genesis 1-2
3.		"Adam" means "mankind" or "humankind" and the root of the word comes from the Hebrew word "adama" which means ... dirt. There is no gender associated with "mankind." Genesis 2:7 " adam " and " adama " (If you are wondering, not until Genesis 2:22 is there a clear distinction between a man (ish) and a woman (isha) and the man declares it.) Different Bible translations use different terms.
4.		No, actually God called the first humans "adam" (Genesis 5:2, which is "mankind" or "humankind." It's Adam who gives Eve her name in Genesis 3:20.)
5.		No, there were two trees: the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil and the Tree of Life. Genesis 2:16; 3:22
6.		Actually, God told the man not to eat the fruit or he'd die. It is the woman who adds "or even touch it." Genesis 2:16, 3:3
7.		The woman was created as a warrior partner, not a subordinate. The Hebrew term "Ezer Kenegdo" is used to describe the woman, but is often also used to describe God's role in God's partnership with humanity. Genesis 2:18; " Ezer Kenegdo ;" Ps. 121:2
8.		Nope. No time frame is given. Genesis 2:4
9.		No, it's a serpent – but unlike any serpent we've ever seen. Not until Revelation 12:9, and 20:2 is the "ancient serpent" identified as "the Devil and Satan" ... Genesis 3:1-15
10.		Eve ate the forbidden fruit and then HANDED it to Adam to eat AS HE STOOD RIGHT THERE BESIDE HER INVOLVED IN THE CONVERSATION. Genesis 3:6
11.		God knows all. Why would God ask questions that God already knew the answers to? THINK. Genesis 3:8-13
12.		The man blames "the woman that You gave me." The woman blames the serpent. Genesis 3:12-13
13.		God curses the SERPENT and the GROUND. He does not curse humanity; God does outline the consequences of their disobedience. Genesis 3:14, 17
14.		No. Read Genesis 3:22. What is God worried about in Genesis 3:22?
15.		GOD performs the first killings to make clothes to cover humanity's nakedness. Genesis 3:21
16.		Adam and Eve had many sons and daughters, but only three sons: Cain, Abel, and Seth are named and become part of the main Genesis story.. Genesis 5:4
