Wisconsin's Driftless Region. Ridgetop Retreat offers rare triple threat: high-yield tillable acreage, world-class trophy whitetail habitat, & views that stretch across the Kickapoo River Valley. Approx 65 acres of tillable ground, this land is anchored by the productive La Farge Silt Loam series. These well-drained ridgetop soils are the gold standard in the region. Fields follow the natural contours of the ridge while preserving the integrity of the land. Rolling Uplands transition into deep, timbered hollows, creating incredible thermal cover & travel corridors for wildlife. Sitting above the fog line means the sense of scale here is unmatched. Massive, professional-grade 50' x 100' steel outbuilding w/ concrete floor + integrated drainage, is ready for heavy equipment or storage.
