

What is it?

TennisCamp is the flagship program at Cambridge Tennis Club of junior tennis instruction encompassing 3 of daily instruction with qualified tennis coaches. This program builds on the exciting potential that tennis offers in promoting lifelong physical activity and participation in sport.

Instruction includes customized drills, clinics, ball machine practice, match play, and more.

Who is it for?

TennisCamp is aimed at school summer break male and female juniors from 5-17 years of age. Both club members and non-club-members are welcome. Club members get a price discount. All skill levels are welcome.

When does it take place?

Students can enrol for full weeks in July and August. Registrations are for full weeks only. Class sizes are capped at 8 students per class. Minimum enrolment is three students per class. Sessions run from 9 a.m. to Noon.

Students can sign up for one or more of the following weeks:

July	August
4-8	2-5 (4 days)
11-15	8-12
18-22	15-19
25-29	22-26
	29-Sept 2

Where does it take place?

TennisCamp runs at the Cambridge Tennis Club, 307 Dundas Highway, Cambridge, Ontario. Two or more of the club's 4 courts are used for instruction.

Is Childcare available?

If parents need to drop off students before the start of TennisCamp we offer Childcare from 8 am to 9 am A flat rate of $8 per hour is charged. Registration for childcare must be completed and paid for online by visiting www.cambridgetennisclub.org/juniors and clicking the childcare link under TennisCamp.

How does TennisCamp work?

Students are divided into groups according to age and playing ability. Qualified coaches then work with groups, performing tennis-specific drills and exercises to teach and reinforce fundamental tennis skills, work with the ball machine, and play in matches. Frequent hydration and rest breaks are given.

Students can use their own racquets or can use racquets supplied by the club. Racquets are also available for purchase.

Students supply their own snacks and water.

How do you register?

TennisCamp registration is completed online, using our simple electronic registration and payment process. Just click www.cambridgetennisclub.org/Junior and click the TennisCamp registration button. You will be taken to a web form that you can complete in a few minutes. Make payments using Paypal or Credit card. After a session reaches 8 paid registrants, registration is automatically closed, and no others can register for that session. Additional registrations are optionally placed in a waiting list.
