THE COACHING

TOOLS COMPANY.COM

Welcome to this updated edition of "549 Powerful Coaching Questions"!

This is a collection of many of my favourite coaching questions - I had a LOT of fun pulling this together for you.

Most of these questions are 140 characters or less - so we'd love you to use them on Twitter or Facebook to inspire your followers or perhaps create new ones!
TIP: If they fit on one line, they are significantly less than 140 characters, leaving you room for comments or 'retweetability'.

Origins: I'm unsure of where each individual question has come from. I have collected them over the last 12+ years from an endless variety of sources. Some of the questions are my own and the rest come from books, various coach training, NLP training (big thanks to Nicole Koch - NLP expert extraordinaire who is awesome to observe), movies, coach forums (or is that fora?), Twitter, Facebook, Linked in and too many places to mention. THANK-YOU everybody! I am a merely a facilitator - YOU are the creators.

Remember that it's not the question that creates the transformation or "Aha" moment, but asking the right question at the right time... And to do that - it's all about being present for - and with - your clients.

So, ask questions that help your client understand - and question themselves. Help them bring the hidden into view, help them process and understand what they find - and then help them take action that grows them.

I hope these questions give you lots of ideas on how to do that. Enjoy!

Now get out there, coach and make a difference...

Goal ECOLOGY

The Best Goals are Stated in the Positive:

69. "How can we make this something you're aiming towards, rather than something you're trying to move away from?"
70. "How can you make this goal a positive statement of what you want to achieve?"

The "Why" of Goals

"Why?" is a question we try to avoid - except in relation to goals. When it comes to goals, the clearer a client is about WHY they want to achieve a goal the more committed they will be to achieving it.

71. "How serious are you about this?"
72. "Why do you want your goal?"
73. "Why is this goal important to you?"
74. "What are the outcomes - what will come out when you achieve your goals?"
75. "Can you imagine your desired outcome? Describe it to me"
76. "How will achieving this goal benefit you? If you got this goal, what would it do for you?"
77. "What will happen when you get your goal?"
78. "What is most important to you about your goal? What MUST happen?"
79. "Why did you choose this goal?"
80. "What are your required outcomes?"
81. "What would be your ideal outcome?"

How much do they really want this goal?

82. "If you could have this goal RIGHT NOW – would you take it?" *
83. "If you had this goal, how would you BE different?"
84. "Just suppose for a moment that you can have your goal, what is it like?"
85. "How important are your goals to you personally?" (Use scale of 1-10 for each)
86. "How will making this change affect other areas of your life?"
87. "Is this goal only for you?"

* You may also like

Congruency

88. "How important is this goal to YOU personally?" (Ask your clients to use scale of 1-10. To be congruent, you're ideally looking for an 8/10 or more)
89. "How does this goal align with your values?"
90. "Is this goal in line with the overall vision you have for your life?"
91. "What's your gut-feel about this goal? Does it align with who you are?"
92. "What's REALLY important to you in life - will this goal help you achieve more of that?"
93. "Are the goals something YOU truly want, or are they something you think you SHOULD have or SHOULD be doing?" (If it's a SHOULD, explore whose goal or dream it is)
94. "When you think about your goal what do you feel?" (Eg. If it gives them a sense of deep contentment, 'rightness' and/or excitement these are good signs that it's a healthy goal)

One great way to check congruency is for the client to 'experience' completion of the goal and see how they feel and if they still want it.

95. "Describe what completing your goal/s will look like in your life?"
96. "Suppose for a moment that you have your goal, what is it like? What do you feel? What are you seeing, hearing and saying to yourself?"
97. "What will this goal/outcome allow you to do?" Then ask, "What will that be like?"
98. "What is different about your life once your goal has been achieved?"
99. "What would be the biggest impact from achieving your goal(s)?"
100. "Imagine how you will handle each day when your goal is completed?"
101. "What might you be saying to yourself when your goal is completed?"
102. "Tell me a situation where completing your goal will be useful?"
103. "Tell me in what other situations and contexts achieving your goal would be helpful?"
(Make a list)
104. "Imagine a situation where what you want has occurred. What would other people notice about you?"

Unexpected Personal Impacts:

105. "What other areas of your life might be affected by this change?"
106. "Where does this goal fit with your priorities and current lifestyle?"
107. "What is the price of making this change?"
  108. Then ask, "Are you willing to pay the price?"
109. "How might your life be better with this new goal?"
110. "How might your life be worse with this new goal?"
111. "Can you complete this goal on your own, or do you need help from others?"
  112. Then if necessary, "What needs to change so that you can achieve this goal on your own?"

Relationship Impacts

113. "How will taking action towards this goal impact other people in your life?"
114. "Who else could be affected if you achieve this goal?"
  115. Then ask, "What if their response is not what you expect?"
116. "How does what others think and feel affect how YOU feel about your goal?"
117. "Who might be upset if you achieved this goal?"

Refining Goals – Making them SMART

SMART Goals are:

- ✓ Specific - the more specific you are the easier your goal is to achieve
  - ✓ Measurable - so you know when you have achieved it
  - ✓ Actionable - success needs to be within their control eg. Winning the lottery is not a "SMART" goal
  - ✓ Realistic - goals need to be both challenging to inspire AND realistic to set yourself up for success
  - ✓ Time-bound - has a deadline
118. "Can you give me your goal in one sentence?"
  119. "How could you make this goal clearer and more measurable?"
  120. "Exactly what do you want to achieve from this goal?"
  121. "Specifically, how will you know you have achieved your goal?"
  122. "Is achieving this goal entirely under your own control?"
  123. "How will you know when you reach your goal?"
  124. "How will you know when to celebrate your success?"
  125. "By when would you want that to be the case?"
  126. "How could break down the overall goal into more manageable sub-goals?"
  127. "What would be the MINIMUM/Super-Easy level of goal to achieve?"
  128. "What would be your TARGET/Ideal level of goal to achieve?"
  129. "What would be your EXTRAORDINARY level of goal to achieve?"
  130. "What timeframe are you looking to work with?"
  131. "What will you be doing differently that tells you you've completed your goal?"
  132. "What criteria could you use to measure your success?"

GETTING UNSTUCK

When a client feels stuck, they still have a goal - to get unstuck, make a decision or a change.

133. "How important is _____ to you really?"
134. "What's the pay-off for being stuck?"
135. "What if you LOWERED your expectations and got moving that way?"
136. "How's that working for you? (from the wonderful Carol Pressnall Leek)"
137. "Who will be the 'winners' and 'losers' if you achieve your goal?" (explore how this could be getting in the way)
138. "Who are you now, and who will you need to become to complete your goal?"
139. "What happens if you continue with your present behaviour?"
140. "What do you get out of having this difficulty?"
141. "What are you avoiding?"
142. "What do you gain from staying stuck?" (There must be a 'benefit' or they wouldn't be stuck!)
143. "If you secretly knew what was holding you back, what would it be?"
144. "What are you not seeing or acknowledging?"
145. "What do you NOT want me to ask you?"
146. "Imagine for a moment that your issue is resolved. How did you get there?"
147. "So, what do you think you're SECRETLY afraid of, that's getting in the way of _____?"
148. "What do you think you're afraid of, that's getting in the way of living the life you want?"
149. "What are you ready to change?"
150. "What are you NOT ready to change YET?"
151. "What would you suggest I ask you to move this forwards?"
152. "What haven't you admitted out loud yet?"
153. "What's the problem in a nutshell?"
154. "Now, what's the problem in one sentence?"
155. "And what's the problem in one word?"
156. "How important is this to you REALLY?"
157. "What would YOU suggest I ask you to move this forwards?"
158. "What EXCITES and INSPIRES you?" (Make a list)
159. "What are you TOLERATING and Putting up with?" (Make a list)
160. "Take a deep breath and picture yourself 5 years from now. This is all in the past. Look back now, what did you do/decide that got you moving? What was the turning point?"
161. "What could make a difference?" Then ask, "What would make a difference?"
162. "If, overnight a miracle happened and you got unstuck, who would you be?"
163. "What research could you do to help you find the first step?"
164. "Who could you talk to who would illuminate this issue?"
165. "What do you NOT want me to ask you?"

Making Decisions and Moving Forwards

166. "What will you think about this 1 month, 1 year, 10 years from now?"
167. "What would you do if you didn't have to live with the consequences?"
168. "Name someone who has done what you want to do.
What would _____ do if they were in your position?"
169. "So which choice do you like best?"
170. "So which choice do you like least?"
171. "What's the EASY way forward here?"
172. "Which choice or decision are you avoiding?"
173. "Which decision is the cheapest?"
174. "Which decision would be the quickest to complete?"
175. "Which decision moves you closest to your life goals?"
176. "What would happen if you didn't make that choice?"
177. "Would you still make that decision if you won the lottery?"
178. "How will this decision affect others in your life?"
179. "Which decision might surprise you?"
180. "What do you gain by making that decision?"
  181. Then ask, "What will you lose by making that decision?"
182. "How do you feel in your body about that option?"
  183. "What is your body telling you about that decision?"

215. "If I were to snap my fingers and you knew what you needed to do?" (snap your fingers)
216. "What do you need to do before you do anything else?"
217. "So, if that seems a bit of a stretch from where you are now, give me a couple of stepping stones along the way?"
218. "What are you NOT ready to do just yet?" Then, "What could you do in the meantime?"
219. "What MUST you do going forwards?"

SELF-DISCOVERY

Identifying Strengths

The client won't always know their strengths - instead ask them questions and then explore their answers for strengths. Also, notice themes that come up regularly - these may be talents!

334. "What are three of your greatest strengths?"
335. "Tell me about some of the biggest challenges in your life? How did you overcome them?"
336. "Tell me about your first achievement?" (Encourage them to share even it seems boring or small now – this gives pointers to early success – and strengths)
337. "What do you enjoy doing?" (We usually enjoy what we are good at!)
338. "What are most you proud of in your life?"
339. "What do you like about yourself?"
340. (Ask yourself) "What do I like about my client?" (Thanks to the talented Lizzy Rowe)
341. "What do you yearn to do?"
342. "What are some unusual skills you have?" (The word 'unusual' forces them to think what's different about themselves so be sure to dig deeper to find underlying strength/s)
343. "What would not be like it is – had you not been part of it?" (eg. a project, event, work or volunteer effort)
344. "What do you get complimented on most?" (If they have trouble answering, ask them to think back to childhood, report cards, appraisals etc.)

(Gives major clues to someone's key values)
346. "Consider the last week. What did you go out of your way to do and not do?" (Eg. If they went out of their way to pick up garbage or be kind to someone in need they may have values of community, service, respect, kindness)
347. "Think about times you have got angry/upset/irritated. What value/s were not being met?"
348. "Think about times when you have been really happy? What values were being met?"
349. "What do you stand for?"*
350. "What would you stand up and fight for?"*
351. "What would you risk your reputation over?"*
352. "What does it mean to you to have a full and rich life?" *
353. "If you could only take 3 THINGS into a difficult, possibly dangerous situation, which are the things they absolutely must have?" *
354. "What is your favourite animal and why?" *
355. "What is your favourite activity and why?" *
356. "Who do you admire? What specifically about them do you admire?" *

* For these questions keep asking, "What's special about that?" until you get to a value.
