1) Only

2) Absolutely

3) Devoted to Him alone

Only GOD's servants who are absolutely devoted to Him alone (will be saved). [37:40]

To be saved from this lowly life into the Kingdom of God and to be included in His mercy is the most fundamental matter of the human race. It is the reason for creation:

*(90:4) We created the human being to work hard (to redeem himself).

However, most people are oblivious to their own truth and they are also oblivious to learning.

(21:1) Fast approaching is the reckoning for the people, but they are oblivious, averse.

And the majority of those who are interested in religion or God do not believe without associating partners with Him.

(12:106) The majority of those who believe in GOD do not do so without committing idol worship.

And the reason for this is that human beings are transgressing and cruel creatures.

(33:72) We have offered the responsibility (freedom of choice) to the heavens and the earth, and the mountains, but they refused to bear it, and were afraid of it. But the human being accepted it; he was transgressing, ignorant.

This is the picture we are facing. From Surah 37, we see that those who will be saved in this picture are those who fulfill three fundamental conditions. The fact that this is repeated four times in the same surah is sufficient for us to reflect deeply upon it.

(37:40) Only GOD's servants who are absolutely devoted to Him alone (will be saved).

(37:74) Only GOD's servants who are absolutely devoted to Him alone (are saved).

(37:128) Only GOD's servants who are absolutely devoted to Him alone (are saved).

(37:160) Only GOD's servants who are devoted to Him alone (are saved).

To be devoted to something means that thing is the top priority in your life. For example, the owner of a tech company said, "we have devoted ourselves to this service." In other words, every stage of his life is shaped for that work. The expression to be devoted does not appear alone in the verse; from the expressions ONLY and ABSOLUTELY, we can understand that God expects this lifestyle from us.

The Duties, Boundaries and Divine Responsibility of the Victory Generation

1. INTRODUCTION AND DIVINE RESPONSIBILITY

It is necessary to contemplate much more deeply, under the guidance of Quranic verses, the duties, boundaries, and wisdom on this sacred path of that special generation—the Victory Generation—honored with proclaiming the purified religion of the Almighty God who created the universe.

We are the living witnesses of the address "We have granted you a great victory" heralded in verse 48:1. This generation, which has torn through the darkness of centuries-old superstitions and satanic teachings with God's unshakable physical miracle, carries on its shoulders the responsibility of spreading the message to the entire world.

However, this is no ordinary path; this is the path of God, the Creator of everything, the possessor of absolute authority. Therefore, we must act extremely carefully, measured, and wisely in every step we take and every effort we make. We must know that the Lord of the universe has given each of us different roles, different talents, and different means in this universal cause. To some He has granted material wealth, to some deep knowledge, to some effective oratory, and to some technical skills. Indeed, our Lord warns us in Sura 4:32 as follows:

Men and Women Endowed With Unique Qualities

(4:32) You shall not covet the qualities bestowed upon each other by GOD; the men enjoy certain qualities, and the women enjoy certain qualities. You may implore GOD to shower you with His grace. GOD is fully aware of all things.

In the light of this verse, rather than competing with one another while spreading the message, we should all complete a piece of this great divine puzzle in accordance with our own equipment, means, and limitations.

2. AVOIDING UNINFORMED ARGUMENTS

The trap we must most avoid falling into while utilizing these differences is succumbing to our pride and entering into debates with people without having full knowledge. Satan wants to use our zeal and enthusiasm for proclaiming the religion to drag us into uninformed arguments, inflate our egos, and make us servants of his own cause. Yet 22:8 and 31:20 warn us in very clear language:

A Common Occurrence

(22:8) Among the people there is the one who argues about GOD without knowledge, and without guidance, and without an enlightening scripture.

As the Victory Generation, we must never enter into blind arguments or pass judgment about God's religion based on hearsay. We must place the magnificent rule in 17:36 and 2:44 at the center of our lives:

Crucial Advice

(17:36) You shall not accept any information, unless you verify it for yourself. I have given you the hearing, the eyesight, and the brain, and you are responsible for using them.

(2:44) Do you exhort the people to be righteous, while forgetting yourselves, though you read the scripture? Do you not understand?

Our duty is not to satisfy our egos, but solely and exclusively to convey the truth based on the Quran, the enlightening scripture.

Luke 6:1-4 "Do not judge, and you will not be judged. 2 For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you. 3 Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? 4 How can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when there is a plank in your own eye?"

3. DEDICATION AND SACRIFICE IN THE DIVINE CAUSE

Beyond wisdom and the limits of our equipment, we must look at the dimension of sacrifice in this cause—what it means to strive. While spreading the message, we must not forget that striving for God's sake is not merely about speaking, sharing things on social media, or arguing. The true striving described in the Quran is a collective dedication and sacrifice. Almighty God defines who the true believers are in 49:15:

The Duties, Boundaries and Divine Responsibility of the Victory Generation

(49:15) Mu'mens (believers) are those who believe in GOD and His messenger, then attain the status of having no doubt whatsoever, and strive with their money and their lives in the cause of GOD. These are the truthful ones.

If we say Only God, then we must spend from the things we love most, from our comfort, our time, and the money in our pockets for the proclamation of this truth. Our Lord explains in His verses the only trade that will save us from painful retribution:

The Best Deal

(61:10) O you who believe, let Me inform you of a trade that will save you from painful retribution.

(61:11) Believe in GOD and His messenger and strive in the cause of GOD with your money and your lives. This is the best deal for you, if you only knew.

Sometimes through mass media, sometimes through advertisements placed in newspapers, and sometimes through a helping hand extended to an orphan or a needy person, we should be able to sacrifice our money in this path. These are the unique moral qualities that are the hallmark of the witnessing community described in the Quran.

(25:73) When reminded of their Lord's revelations, they never react to them as if they were deaf and blind.

(61:4) GOD loves those who fight in His cause united in one column, like the bricks in one wall.

4. THE TRIUMPH OF TRUTH AND THE EXPOSURE OF HYPOCRISY

As we combine our different qualities and spread the message with our wealth and our lives, the hypocrites who see religion as their monopoly, self-serving clergy, and traditionalists will be severely disturbed. However, their attacking this truth, their anger, and their slandering of us is not a bad thing; on the contrary, this is the very spark that will accelerate social awakening! As they attack the pure message of the Quran, their masks will fall and their hypocrisy will be exposed. Our Lord explains their desperate floundering as follows:

(61:8) They wish to put out GOD's light with their mouths. But GOD insists upon perfecting His light, in spite of the disbelievers.

(9:32) They want to put out GOD's light with their mouths, but GOD insists upon perfecting His light, in spite of the disbelievers.

When the masses sleeping in illusion see how these people they blindly followed for years are actually waging war against God's word, they will experience a great shock and awaken from the deep hypnosis that Satan had established. At that point, the darkness of false religion will dissipate and the light of truth will encompass the entire world. When we combine the unique talents God has given us, without falling into any ignorance, taking only the Quran as our guide, and walk this path with our money and our lives, the divine promise will certainly be fulfilled.

And when that glorious day comes, together with great enthusiasm, this verse will be proclaimed: 17:81 Proclaim, "The truth has prevailed, and falsehood has vanished; falsehood will inevitably vanish."

We, the submitters, see that we are at a new threshold of history. God's law does not change: In the past, messengers came, communities were warned, blessings were given, people were tested. Some communities submitted, some communities collapsed in pride, tradition, and idolization. Today the same law operates on another stage.

Our test is not with the sword; it is with knowledge, media, evidence, morality, unity, and determination. We have been given the internet, translation, global communication, artificial intelligence, archives, and the mathematical proof of the Quran. None of these are in vain.

May our Lord make us among His loyal servants who strive with zeal, wisdom, and their entire being in His path, and who witness the exposure of hypocrites and the triumph of truth.

Open Letter to Disbelievers:

Are You Missing the Boat?

I can show you 1000 irrefutable proofs that I am God's Messenger of the Covenant (3:81).
Can you show me one, just one, proof that I am not?
Do you know why you do not believe the Quran?
The Quran tells us exactly why you do not believe.

Let me cite the Quranic prophecy in 3:81 according to the famous translation of Pickthall, not my translation:

When Allah made (His) covenant with the Prophets, (He said): Behold that which I have given you of the Scripture and knowledge. And afterward there will come unto you a messenger, confirming that which ye possess. Ye shall believe in him and ye shall help him. He said: Do ye agree, and will ye take up My burden (which I lay upon you) in this (matter)? They answered: We agree. He said: Then bear witness. I will be a witness with you.

The Quran is "Clear, without any ambiguity" (18:1, 39:28), and this verse informs us that after all the prophets have come to this world and have delivered all the scriptures, a consolidating messenger will come to unify and purify the scriptures.

Who is this Messenger?

For this computer age, the name of God's Messenger of the Covenant is mathematically coded into the Quran. I can show you 1000 physical, verifiable, and utterly irrefutable proofs that I, Rashad Khalifa, am God's messenger who is prophesied in 3:81.

The Most Important Event

Now that the truth has been proven to you on the pages of this Bulletin, do you have enough strength to overcome your ego?

Lo, I am sending my Messenger of the Covenant to prepare the way before Me. ...But who will endure the day of his coming? And who can stand when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire, or like the fuller's soap.

[Book of Malachi 3:1-3]

Do you know why you continue to defy God's truth? The Quran tells us exactly why you do not believe. You worship some other god besides God. That's the reason. Verse 25:43 informs us of people whose god is their ego. Accordingly, if you:

- [1] see the clear Quranic truth,
- [2] supported by overwhelming proofs,
- [3] your mullas and shaikhs cannot come up with a single argument against this truth, and
- [4] you still refuse to accept God's truth, then face it—you have another god besides Allah.

This is confirmed by the verses immediately after 3:81, where God's messenger is prophesied; they emphasize that anyone who fails to accept this Quranic truth is dismissed from the religion of Islam. Please read 3:81-91 very carefully; these verses are, as always, very clear & may save you.

How to Distinguish True Messengers

God's true messengers (1) have solid proof from God that they are His messengers, (2) advocate worshipping God ALONE, & upholding the word of God ALONE, and (3) never ask for a wage.

Satan has flooded the world with false messengers. his aim is to drown the truth in an ocean of falsehood, to divert the people from God's messenger and thus prevent them from being saved. However, God has given us the mind and the absolute freedom to choose His kingdom or Satan's.

If anyone claims to be God's messenger, and fails to meet the criteria listed above, he is a false messenger.

Additionally, God's messenger is supported by God's invisible soldiers, God's treasury, and God's guidance for His sincere believers. See 15:95-97.

Quranic Initial "Y. S." (Ya Sin)

These two letters were added to the beginning of Sura 36. The letter "Y" occurs 237 times in this sura, while "S" (Sin) occurs 48 times. The total of the two letters is 285, which is 19×15 .

It is noteworthy that the letter "Y" is written in two ways in the Quran: one is obvious, and the other is obscure. The obscure form of this letter can be confusing for those who are not thoroughly familiar with the Arabic language. A good example is the word "Araany أراني" which appears twice in 12:36. The letter "Y" is used twice in this word; the first "Y" is the obscure one, and the second is the obvious one. Sura 36 does not contain a single obscure "Y." This is a remarkable phenomenon and something not normally seen in a sura as long as Sura 36.

Quranic Initial "H. M." (Ha Mim)

Seven suras are prefixed with the letters "H" and "M"; from Sura 40 through 46. The total occurrence of these two letters in these seven H.M.-initialed suras is 2147 or 19×113 .

Quranic Initial "A.S.Q." ('Ayn Sin Qaf)

These initials constitute verse 2 of Sura 42, and the total occurrence of these letters in this sura is 209 or 19×11 . "'A" ('Ayn) occurs 98 times, "S" (Sin) occurs 54 times, and "Q" (Qaf) occurs 57 times.

Quranic Initial K.H.Y.'A.S. (Kaf Ha Ya 'Ayn Sad)

This is the longest set of initials, containing five letters, and is found in a single sura, Sura 19. In Sura 19, the letter "K" occurs 137 times, "H" 175 times, "Y" 343 times, "'A" 117 times, and "S" (Sad) 26 times. Thus, the total occurrence of these five letters is $137 + 175 + 343 + 117 + 26 = 798 = 19 \times 42$.

H., T.H. (Ta Ha), T.S. (Ta Sin) & T.S.M. (Ta Sin Mim)

An intricate interlocking relationship connects these overlapping Quranic initials to form a total that is a multiple of 19. The "H." initial is found in Suras 19 and 20. The "T.H." initials prefix Sura 20. The "T.S." initials are found in Sura 27, while the "T.S.M." initials are found in the surrounding Suras 26 and 28.

It should also be noted that suras narrating extraordinarily powerful miracles contain longer, more complex, interlocking and overlapping initials. For example, the virgin birth of Jesus is mentioned in Sura 19, which begins with the longest set of initials, K.H.Y.'A.S. The interlocking initials "H.," "T.H.," "T.S.," and "T.S.M." prefix suras that describe the miracles of Moses, Jesus, and the extraordinary events involving Solomon and the jinns. Thus, God provides stronger evidence to support more powerful miracles.

WHO DISCOVERED IT?

The 19-based code of the Quran was revealed to humanity by God through Rashad Khalifa. This great revelation that "19" is the common denominator of the Quran took place in January 1974, coinciding with Dhul-Hijjah 1393 of the Hijri calendar. The Quran began to be revealed in the 13th year before the Hijra (13 B.H.). Accordingly, the time elapsed from the revelation of the Quran to the revelation of its miracle is $1393 + 13 = 1406$ years, which equals 19×74 .

The relationship between 19×74 lunar years and the year 1974 CE is noteworthy. This is particularly striking when considering the fact that the number "19" appears in the Quran only in Sura 74 (Sura 74).

After proclaiming Code 19 to the world and declaring that humanity must worship God alone to attain salvation in the Hereafter, Rashad Khalifa was martyred on January 31, 1990.

[40:28] Have they not roamed the earth and noted the consequences for those who preceded them? They used to be greater in number, greater in power, and possessed a greater legacy on earth. Yet, all their achievements did not help them in the least.

My Submission Story

Sezer

Peace be upon you, my brothers and sisters,

My faith was based on Sunni Islam for many years. During this period, although I did not commit any disgraceful crimes, I was involved in more than 30 legal cases. At the same time, I was addicted to alcohol and stimulants. There was always a questioning within me; as time passed, these question marks grew even more.

When I reached the age of 40, I made a sincere prayer to my Lord: "Save me from this disgraceful life and show me the right path." Upon this, I began reading the Quran with understanding of its meaning. As I read, I noticed the differences between the religion we were taught and the Quran. This led me to deeper research.

I continued reading and questioning with sincerity. I searched for the path leading to my Lord. During this process, I learned that Rashad Khalifa was a messenger. I felt and experienced that my Lord was guiding me, touching me.

Praise God, I am among the submitters.

My life changed completely. While I was someone for whom religion seemed impossible to be associated with — lies, bad habits, slang speech... all of them left my life. My Lord saved me from the edge of the cliff.

Praise God.
