Hello Ladies,

We may run into some challenges this Saturday due to the weather, along with several members being out sick. With Pat, Tonee, Jen, and possibly others unavailable—and some members understandably avoiding driving in poor weather—we may be working with a smaller group than usual.

Please be safe and use your best judgment when traveling.

Meeting Agenda:

No birthdays this month

WWQG Minutes March 14, 2026

Meeting called at 10:45 by President Darrell.

10 Members present, one guest, Margaret from Camp Paivika, joining.

Secretary's report- Approved by Pat D., Kelli seconded.

Treasurer's report- Balance shared. Chamber dues paid. Restaurant gift card for Auctioneer approved by Trisha, seconded by Pat.

Upcoming options for quilt walk and online auction possibilities discussed.

Camp Paivika will be having a vendor fair in Santa Anita in November. Guild will participate. Pat D. to attend on behalf of the guild, other members invited. Camp Paivika will have five sessions of campers, June 5th-August 5th. June 20th is opening day for the summer session. The family camps are scheduled for August. Possibility for a guild "mini-quilt walk" during this timeframe to be determined.

April 18th there is a mother's retreat in the evening. Darrell, Pat D. & Michelle will be present on behalf of the guild. Promotion options discussed. Social Media possibilities? Camp Paivika and Ability First has built an online presence. May online auction- Camp Paivika will need two quilts. Pat D. and Jennifer expressed interest in providing quilts.

There will not be a traditional Blue Jay quilt walk this year, since we are testing the new venue with Camp Paivika. We will revisit the decision next year.

Sylvia shared her quilt journey. (She has 60 machines!)

Quilt Bee- Pamela for April's meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 12:24

Kelli's Dawn to Dusk Quilt Block demonstration from More Nickel Quilts.

Respectfully submitted, Trisha Skalnik

Upcoming Events

April Queen Bee = Cheryl

My colors are (1) cream white (2) pale lavender (3) darker lavender They don't need to be solid. but if using a print make it muted or small print.

Please forgive me, (Jen), the photo did not want to be sent through gmail, and this newsletter needs to go out. I am sure that Cheryl will have a lovely sample for everyone to see at the meeting.

What Have You Been Up To?

Sylvia Owoh

I am going to miss the meeting. I will be up in Fresno for the Mennonite relief sale. They will be auctioning 167 Quilts and such.

Kelli Agner

My sewing room/corner is blossoming with spring vibes. I only wish that I could begin to capture the flora on our mountain. This week my walk on the trails revealed cherry blossoms, budding apple trees, and those beautiful dogwoods!

Here is one of my quilts in progress. I look forward to seeing everyone for our guild meeting on Saturday. - Kelli
