

Continue Learning & Connecting in 2021 with Music City VIRTUAL Workshop Series

2020 has been a challenging year. Lenders are busier than ever, and we want to ensure you have the training you need to take full advantage of all your opportunities and stay on top of all policies and regulations in 2021.

In place of our annual in-person conference for this year, our Virtual Workshop Series offers three 2-hour workshops designed to bring you concise and relevant training, when you need it most. During each workshop, SBA leaders and industry experts will provide training followed by an in-depth panel Q&A discussion answering real-world practical hot button questions.

Continuing our commitment to cultivate and strengthen our small business lending community relationships, our one-year membership gives you access to all three workshops and our 24-7 lending community app (available via mobile device or PC) where you can connect with colleagues and experts, share information, download resources, utilize our mentor partnership program and more from January through December.
