Events beginning to fill fall and winter schedule

By Calvin Daniels
Staff Writer

The event schedule in Yorkton is beginning to fill in, and look more normal, after being hit hard with cancellations the past 18-plus months due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

"We are excited/wary about planning events," said Tonia Vermette with the Yorkton Arts Council. "It seems like we have gone from very slow-paced planning to a break-neck pace in just a couple of weeks.

"Events that usually take the better part of a year to plan are now only a couple of months away with all the organizational and promotional work crushed into a very short time frame."

Marc Holt, Performing Arts Coordinator, YAC, agreed planning has taken place very quickly once restrictions were lifted.

"Planning our 2021-2022 Stars for Saskatchewan Concert Series has been a whirlwind," he said. "The planning process would normally start in October and wrap up with the announcement of the season in May. This year we started in late June and announced the season on August 18th. As crazy as it has been, we are thrilled to be back at it."

The Stars for Saskatchewan series has three exciting shows through the fall and winter starting off with singer/songwriter Amy Bishop Oct. 27. On Nov. 15, they have the Alberta based roots/swing duo, Over The Moon, and they start back up in the New Year on Jan. 26, 2022 with singer/songwriter Royal Wood.

It is a similar situation at the Godfrey Dean Gallery.

"We are incredibly thankful for everyone's patience over the past few seasons," said Kelly Litzenberger with the Gallery. "Hosting events, receptions, classes and artist's talks have been a staple of Godfrey Dean Art Gallery for years. When we plan these events we want to offer the best possible experience.

"The shutdown removed the ability to host activities, but it also allowed us to take a look at ways we can change and also improve audience interaction. People's time is valuable and we hope that when you visit an exhibition or event with us that it becomes memorable."

Vermette said planning on the visual arts side is certainly well under way.

"For the visual/literary arts I am planning receptions to go along with gallery exhibitions at the Community pARTners Gallery, an in-person workshop for Culture Days - Learn to crochet with Michelle Easton and an in-person Story Slam Story telling competition Wednesday Oct. 20 at 7:00 pm," she said.

At the Godfrey Dean the planning includes, a hands-on felting and fabric art workshop with artist Melanie Monique Rose in November, alongside an opening reception for her exhibition The Flower People.

All information for upcoming exhibitions and events will be made available on our socials (@godfreydeanartgallery on FB and Instagram). The Gallery also has an email mailing list for gallery announcements, which you can sign up for on their website godfreydeanartgallery.ca

The public seems genuinely happy to see the return of concerts, art shows and workshops.

"I have had a few comments from people who have already dropped into the office to purchase their season tickets about how glad they are to be able to attend live concerts again," said Vermette.

"I am hopeful that over the next couple of months COVID case numbers remain low enough so that we can continue with our events as planned without further interruptions and shutdowns."

"The reaction from the community has been great," offered Litzenberger. "We've been seeing a lot of familiar faces and a lot of new faces at the gallery. More and more families are discovering the gallery as they are looking for activities to experience within the community. We have been making a conscious effort to host activities with manageable crowd sizes so people of all comfort levels have a great experience. We are lucky to have such a large space to welcome people."

The renewed interest extends to volunteers too.

"I have had several new volunteers participate in the Yorkton Yarn Bombing project on the Gallagher Centre Fence and a couple of other new volunteers inquire about how they can get involved in our organization," said Vermette.

"We love our volunteers and they contribute in many way," said Litzenberger.

"The shutdown did affect our volunteer base, but only due to the age demographic of our volunteers. They are primarily members of our community that have retired but share a love of arts, culture and our community. With that said, we did not feel comfortable with putting senior citizens in a position (such as greeting, or attending receptions) that could potentially put them in contact with others."

The Gallagher Centre is also seeing events returning including;

Nov. 3-6 - Yorkton Exhibition Harvest Showdown

Nov. 11 - Remembrance Day Service

Feb. 26&27 - Gun Show, Yorkton Gun Club

Mar. 30-Apr. 3 - Parkland Outdoor Show and Expo

Apr. 8-10 - Spring Expo, Yorkton Exhibition

Apr. 21-23 - 4-H Steer and Heifer Show

Apr. 23 - Kee's Taekwondo Tournament, Kee's Taekwondo

May 12-15 - Sask Gymnastics Championships, Sask and Springers Gymnastics

May 26-29 - Yorkton Film Festival

Tourism Facilities

We know that events are gearing up for the winter season and Yorkton has the amenities to host events of all sizes.

When it comes to hosting an event, whether it's a business meeting, a major convention, wedding, or sporting event, Yorkton has the facilities.

"That's one of the great things about a city like Yorkton. It's small enough anyone coming into an event can find their way around easily, but we are large enough to have a full range of quality services," said Tourism Yorkton Executive Director Randy Goulden.

Goulden said it starts with accommodations and food.

"Whether you need a room for a night, or fine hotels and motels," she said.

"And our restaurants range from, providing burgers on the go as you travel, to those offering fine dining."

"There are of course private areas in some of the restaurants for small meetings as well."

When it comes to larger gatherings, that perfect wedding, or fraternal convention, Yorkton has the facilities for that too.

The Painted Hand Casino, SIGN on Broadway, St. Mary's Cultural Centre, Godfrey Dean Cultural Centre, Land Titles Building and the City's own Gallagher Centre all have spaces to accommodate gatherings from just a few intimate friends, to a high level business gathering, to provincial conventions.

"We're fortunate in Yorkton to have such a range of facilities," said Goulden. "It has allowed the city to be the site of events from the Parkland Expo and Sunflower Craft Show & Sale, the annual SUN convention and the Saskatchewan Wildlife Federation convention."

Should someone need a little help planning an event in the city, Tourism Yorkton can help there as well. They have a Convention and Event Planning Guide and a Wedding Planning Guide on their website; www.tourismyorkton.com.

Easter Seals Snowarama

February 19, 2022 will be the 45th Annual Easter Seals Snowarama in Yorkton!

The Snowarama Committee is working diligently to ensure another safe and fun event in 2022!

John Denysek, Regional Director with SaskAbilities in Yorkton noted, "Since Snowarama began in 1977 over $2.5 million has been raised for individuals experiencing disability in the province."

Participants and riders have travelled from all of the Prairie Provinces and as far as B.C. to attend Snowarama and support individuals experiencing disability to participate in Easter Seals Programs.

In 2021 a Virtual Snowarama took place. Riders and sponsors continued to support the event, but rode on a day that worked best for them and instead of a large gathering banquet to thank the supporters, gift cards to local restaurants were offered in its place. In the summer of 2021 we once again had to pause our in-person Camp Easter Seal.

Summer Fun was able to take place in person and virtually. Camp Connected was also launched in 2021; a robust and interactive virtual camp experience. Campers from all across Saskatchewan took part! Individuals experiencing disability were still able to enjoy Camp Easter Seal and Summer Fun, visit with friends, and celebrate summer! We also utilized this time to complete several yard and facility upgrades at Camp Easter Seal.

The details of the 2022 Snowarama are still being finalized; going forward Snowarama will be a hybrid of its traditions and innovative practices that were implemented last year. We cannot wait to celebrate!

The funds raised support:

- Camp Easter Seal; a fully wheelchair accessible summer camp •
- Summer Fun Program; an urban day camp focused on recreational and leisure activities in the community for children experiencing disability •
- Adaptive Technology Services; computers and technology are used to minimize the impact of having a disability.

Snowarama is a Yorkton tradition! For over 40 years riders have collected pledges, rode beautifully groomed and marked snowmobile trails, received sponsored meals and fuel for their sleds, and a ticket to the Awards Banquet. Deana Jesmer, Community Relations

Coordinator with SaskAbilities says it is the participants who make the event a success. "The community involvement and continued support have made Snowarama the long term event that it is," she said. "We are proud to report that a handful of riders that participated in the very first Snowarama still ride and have great stories to share. Many of the riders have been supporting Easter Seals for over 20 years and regardless of snow conditions they attend and show such dedication. There are generations of family members that attend - it feels like a reunion each year!"

The event is overseen by a dedicated and diverse group of volunteers who give unselfishly of their time and talents to make the event the success that it is. We are fortunate as a charitable organization to be associated with these outstanding individuals.

Amy Bishop, Wednesday, October 27, 2021

Amy Bishop's voice is a combination of smooth pavement and rough gravel, with the ability to charm listeners with her sweet tones; yet stun audiences with the ability to hit any high note. Amy appeared on the inaugural season of CTV's "The Launch" where she dazzled all of Canada with her amazing performances. Hailing from Calgary, Amy began her music career around campfires, at block parties, and in church choir. Knowing a career in music is no guarantee, Amy decided to practice other trades, but her passion for music prevailed, leading her to collaborations with Moby and opening for April Wine, Farmer's Daughter, and Chris Cummings. Amy has an instinctive ability to craft stories into song and deliver them with sincerity and beauty.

Over The Moon, Monday, November 15, 2021

Longview Alberta's roots/swing duo "Over The Moon" are totally immersed in real cowboy country. When you set up home in the foothills of Alberta's Rocky Mountains, it's inevitable there will be a strong sense of place - and the rhythms of the land when you start to make music. The couple's debut album "Moondancer", was mostly written and recorded on the ranch where they live, and the resonances are there for all to hear, reflecting the pulse of life living in a territory that is rugged and beautiful. It's a wild ride from 40's western swing to Appalachian old-time, to cowboy blues, all featuring their meant-to-be vocals and a wide array of acoustic instruments. Suzanne and Craig treat their audiences like a living room full of close friends coming over for a night of music and fun stories. Chatting with people after shows is a highlight for them, and at most shows, they end up leaving town with a big load of new friends!!! They're very down to earth, rural people, and their music is Uncluttered, Simple, and Sweet!

Royal Wood, Wednesday, January 26, 2022

Singer, songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and producer Royal Wood has established himself as a true musical talent. Since being proclaimed “Songwriter of the Year” by iTunes, Wood has continued to evolve and hone his musical craft - maintaining an unmistakable identity while uncovering and reinventing his sound. The JUNO-Award-nominated artist is inspired by both loss and love; his songs are an ode to the classic styles of Tin Pan Alley and Laurel Canyon. You might also recognize his music from being featured in critically acclaimed television programs such as “Grey’s Anatomy” and “Private Practice”. Royal has also toured with legendary artists Bonnie Raitt and David Gray. Royal Wood hasn’t let the pandemic slow him down. He and his wife Alison had their first child Henry John Royal. He recently released his “Live at Massey Hall” album and is currently wrapping up his busy year by recording his new full studio album remotely in Toronto with Montreal-based producer Marcus Paquin (The National, Arcade Fire). The album features songs co-written with powerhouse musician Linda Perry (Adele, Alicia Keys) and UK phenom Jamie Scott (Ed Sheeran, Justin Bieber). The new album will be released in January 2022 and will coincide with a headline tour of Canada and the US.

“Badlands Jass”) write and perform original compositions influenced by early blues, swing, jazz and ragtime including artists such as Lonnie Johnson, Howlin’ Wolf, Memphis Minnie, and Django Reinhardt. Blue Moon Marquee’s passionate performances and smouldering onstage chemistry is their trademark. It’s something that enthralled audiences from back-room bars to festival stages, to velvet-seated theatres. Jasmine Colette, the rhythm section, not only commands the upright bass but also brings the swing with her feet playing drums all while singing harmonies. A.W. Cardinal’s distinctive thick and smoky vocals barrel out like a raging bull. His guitar crackles with the swinging energy of jazz-tinged blues. Recent nominations include Blues Artist of the Year, 2021 Western Canadian Music Awards; Indigenous Songwriter of the Year, 2021 Canadian Folk Music Awards; Indigenous Artist of the Year, 2018 WCMA; New Artist of the Year, 2013s 6 Maple Blues Awards (2016). Known for their authenticity, this versatile act presents as duo, trio or quartet.

KAHKEWISTAHAW FIRST NATION

Yorkton Cross Country Ski Club

The Yorkton Cross Country Ski Club maintains trails on the Deer Park Golf Course during the winter months. With the cooperation of our volunteer groomers and the City of Yorkton the club regularly grooms the trails and opens the clubhouse as a warm up shelter and a place to rent equipment on a first come first serve basis. Access and Rentals may be restricted depending on conditions.

In this pandemic world we are in right now, people are looking for safe activities that can help them get outside while still practicing physical distancing. Being that this is easily accomplished while skiing outdoors, many enthusiasts expect this will add to the surge in popularity of cross-country skiing more than ever.

The Yorkton Cross Country Ski Club has over one hundred members and families that get out and enjoy the trails and activities. The club provides a number of opportunities for youth and adults to learn to ski. Last year over 45 youth participated in the Club's Jackrabbit Programme.

The programme follows Nordic Canada's programs to teach kids ages 3 to age 18 to ski using many different games and adventures. Each year there are also a few opportunities for field trips to try other nearby locations such as Good Spirit or Duck Mountain as well as a few races for those who want to try the excitement of competition.

Children are divided up into four different age groups Bunnies, Jack Rabbit 1&2, Jack Rabbit 3&4, Senior Rabbits and Track Attack groups.

If parents are interested in more information about the youth programs, they can email maloff03@gmail.com Deadline to register for the youth programs is November 1st.

For information about our club you can contact the club's Facebook page. As we all try and get out and enjoy our Fall weather, we also know that winter is never far behind in our beautiful country. This year try and get out and enjoy nature and a winter activity. It is a great distraction from the isolation and inactivity that the pandemic has put upon many of us.
