

Inter-Departmental Memorandum

Date: October 20, 2017
To: All Residents & JCHA Employees
From: JCHA Board of Commissioners
Marvin Walton, JCHA Executive Director
Subject: RISK CONTROL POLICY STATEMENT

The safety and well-being of the residents and employees of the Housing Authority of the City of Jersey City "JCHA" is of the utmost importance. Proper procedures have been established in order to ensure that the highest level of safety is provided for all. It is the intention of the JCHA to abide by all applicable laws and regulations, which govern the health and safety of the employees, residents, visitors and property. Risk Control methods will be employed where feasible to prevent and control loss which may threaten the health and well-being of those the JCHA serves and employs. Risk Control is the responsibility of all levels of the JCHA. The JCHA shall make all feasible efforts to ensure that the optimal level of safety is provided for all. Through the administration of this adopted risk control policy and the cooperation and support of those involved, the Housing Authority of the City of Jersey City will make risk control a priority.
