

LEAP – Keiki Literacy & Learning Programs

About The Award

This program is designed to provide flexible support in the form of learning subscription programs. Choose a subscription program that works best for your family in the form of child literacy subscriptions for books (Dolly Parton Imagination Library), travel subscription boxes (Little Passports), or other keiki literacy & learning programs such as science kit subscriptions, hands-on learning kits and discovery play kits to inspire and engage. The following programs are supported by the Foundation that is no cost to you, include:

Choose any (1) ONE of the following learning subscription programs:

Dolly Parton Imagination Library (open to keiki ages 0-5 years): Hualālai 'Ohana Foundation is an affiliate partner of The Dolly Parton's Imagination Library. The Imagination Library mails high-quality, age-appropriate books to registered children. These books are personalized with each child's name and mailed directly to their home to create a gifting experience that makes books exciting and encourages families to spend time enjoying books together.

Little Passports (open to keiki ages 3-10 years): Oh, the places you'll go! Little Passports is an award-winning travel subscription box mailed to your child each month. Each package is designed to spark your child's curiosity about the world so your keiki know the true meaning of wanderlust at an early age. Inspire children to learn about the world around them, one monthly package at a time. This program is age-specific and developed by educators to encourage interest in geography, science, world discoveries and a life-long love of learning. 100% fun, kid-tested for maximum fun.
