FEATURING....

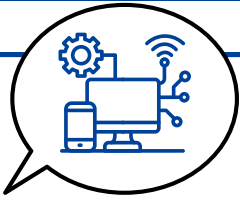

PORCELAIN TEACUPS FLOWERS

Join instructor Carolina Boulton for a creative and relaxed open studio experience designed for porcelain enthusiasts of all skill levels. Carolina also teaches our popular porcelain flower classes, bringing her expertise and creativity to each project. In this class, you'll have the opportunity to handcraft delicate porcelain flowers, create beautiful teacups, or bring your own porcelain ideas to life. Whether you're sculpting intricate petals, experimenting with new designs, or refining techniques you've learned in previous classes, you'll have the freedom to explore and create at your own pace. Come ready to get creative, learn new techniques, and enjoy the process of working with porcelain in a welcoming studio environment!
