SHOW IN THE PARTY ROOM

The 1960s was a decade teeming with glorious triumphs and life altering upheavals: Vietnam, the optimism of a youthful President, miniskirts, the birth of the women's movement, political assassinations, student unrest and Black Power. It was also a particularly fertile period for popular song; a time when, as a young girl, award winning vocalist Susan Winter listened to the likes of Motown, Tony Bennett, Eydie Gorme, Tom Jones, Petula Clark and the Beatles all at the same time. In her delightful new show, "Susan Winter Sings the Sixties", Ms. Winter musically revisits the many unforgettable innovations of the day: Girl Groups, Bacharach and David, Sergio Mendes and Brazil '66, Joni Mitchell, Bob Dylan, Roger Miller, and Tom Lehrer. She also gets to tangle with "Hair" and blame in on the Bossa Nova. This is an evening you won't want to miss!
