Directory of Cellulose Nanomaterials
Advertising Orders: Terms and Conditions

About The Directory

The Directory of Cellulose Nanomaterials is published by Biobased Markets, Market-Intell LLC. Publication is expected Q2 2023.

The Directory will be offered as a free PDF and also as a low-cost print option. It will be announced in TAPPI's Over the Wire, a weekly news article distributed by TAPPI to more than 6,000 subscribers and the TAPPI Nano website, and the TAPPI Nano event website.

A press release will be issued upon publication. The press release will be issued to Fastmarkets (RISI) for their Pulp and Paper Week and Pulp and Paper International, publications with global industry reach. The press release will also be made available to subscribers and others to distribute as they see fit, with or without modifications.

The Directory will also be offered on the Biobased Markets website, announced on LinkedIn, and distributed globally to the Biobased Markets mailing list and other channels as appropriate.

All are welcome to share it with colleagues, suppliers, and customers.

Listings are free, and can include name, address, phone number, website URL, and contact information with up to 5 lines of text, Calibri 10 pt, approximately 92 characters per line including spaces. Additional text can be added for $100 per line, subject to minimums. Email jackmiller@biobasedmarkets.com. A template follows below.
