

About Us

Headquartered just outside of Los Angeles, Imaging Logistics, Inc. has a mission, to provide businesses with the highest quality of service for everything your office may need.

At Imaging Logistics Inc., we are committed to the client. What separates our organization from many others is our hands-on approach and accessibility with your very own personal concierge. Your dedicated concierge will be assigned specifically to your business, streamlining your ordering process. No more call redirects, call prompts and frustrating hold times. You will receive fast, friendly and efficient service, starting with your first order.

We have onsite, licensed technicians, available nationwide for a variety of services including maintenance, repairs, installations, and cleaning.

Imaging Logistics offers no tax as well as free shipping!

What order is complete without something sweet? With every order, your office will receive a free 3 lb. bag of M&M's!
