Specialty and Dog Talk A Barking Success

Our Spring Specialty drew an entry of 19 Scottish Terriers in the regular classes, 4 in sweepstakes and 7 juniors signed up. This year participants came from Alaska, California, Wyoming and of course, Washington. Breeder Danica Burge (Co-owned by Linda and Adrian Sanches) successfully showed GCH CH J-MAR'S PRO BONO to Best of Breed and Best Owner Handler honors. Bro Bono also won the breed at the All Terrier Club show. In her first show as a junior handler, Miss London Garside went Best Junior from the novice class. Judges were Bergit Coady Kabel and Doug McLaughlin

Bladder Cancer & Patella Screening Clinic Works

Funded by the Health Trust Fund of the Scottish Terrier Club of America, our January bladder cancer screening clinic drew 10 Scottish Terriers over the age of 5. Dr. Jessica Wilcock, DVM of Evergreen Veterinary Hospital, confirmed by ultrasound that one Scottie did have bladder cancer. This conformation allowed the owner to begin appropriate treatment. The other Scotties who were screened did not show signs of bladder cancer.

This year we also offered screening for patellas. We had numerous Scotties and one Westie puppy participate in the screening. We are indebted to Dr. Jessica Wilcox, DVM for donating her time to complete the clinic and to Evergreen Veterinary Hospital for allowing the club to use their facility and equipment.

WSSTC Junior Stars In St. Patrick's Day Parade

WSSTC junior member, Evelyn Walsh of Sequim, rocked the front page of the Kitsap Newspaper following her participation in Bremerton's St. Patrick's Day Parade. Decked out in all green (including her hair), the 9-year-old walked her Grandmother Giselle Dew's Scottish terrier, Po, ahead of the Tacoma Pipes and Drums Bagpipe Band downtown Bremerton on Saturday, March 14, 2026.

Grandmother Giselle Dew, who pipes in the band, said she couldn't be prouder of her granddaughter. "Not only did Evelyn have fun, but she showed the large crowd just what fun a kid can have with a Scottish Terrier – even at an Irish Parade."

Panel Discussion With Our Three Judges Draws 40 Participants

Following the Washington State Scottish Terrier and All Terrier Club of Western Washington specialties, 40 terrier enthusiasts attended a panel discussion on “How to Win in the Show Ring: A Judge’s Perspective.” Participating in the discussion were Judges Bergit Coady Kabel, Maripi Wooldridge, and Doug MacFarlane. The three judges shared their insights on how to ensure your terrier will show its best and leave a positive impression.

Knowing what the standard says and understanding how the breed should appear and function underscores ring

Scottie Raffle Raises Funds to Defray Costs

Our paper bag raffle raised more than $800 to help pay for a breeder judge for our show. Baskets included a chocolate basket donated by the Jones, a scottie cooking basket, a pink dog toy basket, a certificate for veterinary services, an Airedale size dog bed, a grooming tote full of supplies, sparkle leads, and even a La Bubu mystery doll which 2 young fanciers fought over. Thank you all.

preparation and presentation. The coat must be in top condition, but the dog must also be in good working condition.

Preparation of a terrier begins months before an important show with an analysis of the dog’s strengths and weaknesses. Setting the pattern must take into consideration the strengths and weaknesses of the dog’s conformation. Clean hair grows.

Spend enough time in advance of the show to know what you need to do in the ring to keep the dog’s attention. It may be playing games, throwing, or squeaking a toy.

Do not hold the dog’s lead too high or too loose, or you will lose control of your dog.

Time permitting, terriers should have their furnishing washed out before going back for group. Breeds that include products need to be washed EVERY DAY after being shown to remove products.
