

Chareice's Celebrity & Society Circle

NIPSCO CAP program hosted its holiday celebration, several movers and shakers attended the festivities. The Community Advisory Panel, or CAP, is an invaluable resource for NIPSCO. The CAP model has been utilized for many years and has helped NIPSCO navigate through a variety of monumental projects and improvements. The CAP group helps the NIPSCO team to hear from and concentrate on every community they serve. It's a great way to keep the lines of communication open and ensure NIPSCO is serving its customers in the best way possible. Merry Christmas and keep up the great work you do, Michael W. Hooper, President, Rick Calinski, Director of Public Affairs and Economic Development and Alexius D. Barber, Public Affairs & Economic Development Manager all from NIPSCO.

KEM, the soulful, jazz and R&B balladeer and former Grammy award nominee recently performed at Horseshoe Casino during the holiday season. Kem, is known to sweep women off their feet during his performances with songs like "Share My Life", "Be Mine for Christmas", "Promise to Love", "I Can't Stop Loving You", just to name a few. Kem has featured various artists on his albums such as; Stevie Wonder, Ron Isley and Toni Braxton.

Chareice White
Photo Journalist
Photographed by: Cooley's Video

Merry Christmas

Performance by balladeer Kem

Cool Kem

Kem was dynamic at Horseshoe.

Mike Hooper, Alexius Barber, Chareice White and Rick Calinski greeted guests during CAP's celebration.

(l-r) Alexius Barber, Mike Hoepper of NIPSCO and Natalie Ammons shared holiday smiles during an awesome NIPSCO Celebration.

Alexius Barber, Kimberly K. Robinson, Mike Suggs, Dr. Vanessa Allen McCloud and Verlie Suggs were surrounded by holiday cheer.

Deputy Mayor Trent McCann (Gary, IN) and wife Akilia McCann were delighted to spend a break after work to enjoy the holiday festivities for NIPSCO's CAP celebration.

Verlie Suggs, Kelly Enoe, Sandra Favela, Keith Selvic.

