PRESS RELEASE

Mohali, 30th March, 2026:

The work 'Business Plan Jonjua Air (Africa)' was registered with Copyright Office, Government of India vide Registration Number L-125817/2023 dated 14/06/2023. The work was first published in India by Jonjua Overseas Limited in 2021. Jonjua Overseas Limited is also the owner of various rights comprising the copyright in the work. It discusses all aspects of setting up a local or regional airline in Africa. The basics of the work are applicable to all start-up airlines in the emerging markets. The work has global application.

While Indian copyright registration provides strong protection within India, it does not automatically provide the procedural advantages offered by the U.S. Copyright Office within the US. Active U.S. registration clarifies ownership and strengthens legal standing in the world's largest media market. With a view to increase its protection and value add to the content, Jonjua Overseas Limited has applied for Copyright with US Copyright Office with Case Number 1-15130038421 dated 28/03/2026 for its work 'Business Plan Jonjua Air (Africa)'. It is believed that US Copyright protection will enable company to have competitive edge in the business in North American Market. While the company intends to protect its intangible assets and also increase its foray across the global market, therefore, not only the development but also protection of intangible goods may be regarded as of great benefit and value addition in the growth of the company.

Screen Shot of the relevant extract from US Copyright Office is attached.
