SARA TAKES ON SPRAY TANNING

I have known Amanda of Glow On Girl Beauty for years now. What draws me most to her is her passion for and knowledge of her craft. When she posted that she was looking for some part-time help, I felt compelled to throw my hat in the ring...

Turns out, I kind of love it!

I will be taking clients at her nearby studio on most Thursdays & Fridays.

Booking will go through her website: glowongirlbeauty.com but if you're interested in booking with me during daytime hours on days besides Thursdays or Fridays, feel free to message me and I can help find a time that works for both of us!

Tans with me are currently only $25 but that price will be increasing soon!

TRACK SEASON

Friendly reminder that my evening hours may be more limited than usual in the upcoming months due to my husband's coaching schedule and our 3-year-old who definitely needs supervision...

Pre-book a month or two out if you can and don't forget that I am open Saturday and Sunday mornings as well!
