Greetings MMCC Members,

Bob and Vickie Mallory here, your connection to the National Corvette Museum and the NCM liaisons to the Mid-Missouri Corvette Club. This month's report comes right after we attended the Michelin Bash one of the biggest events of NCM. About 1700 registered to the event and several attendees stopping by.

This photo opportunity spot is right past the Museum and just before the new Collections facility when you visit, take time to catch a shot of your Corvette.

New Item in NCM

New item inside near the simulators, is a booth that allows you to create your personalized driver ID with your photo and the appropriate generational logo. In the next photo some Fellow stopped Vickie for a quick pic if you recognize this fellow then chances are you have experienced your Corvette to its limits.

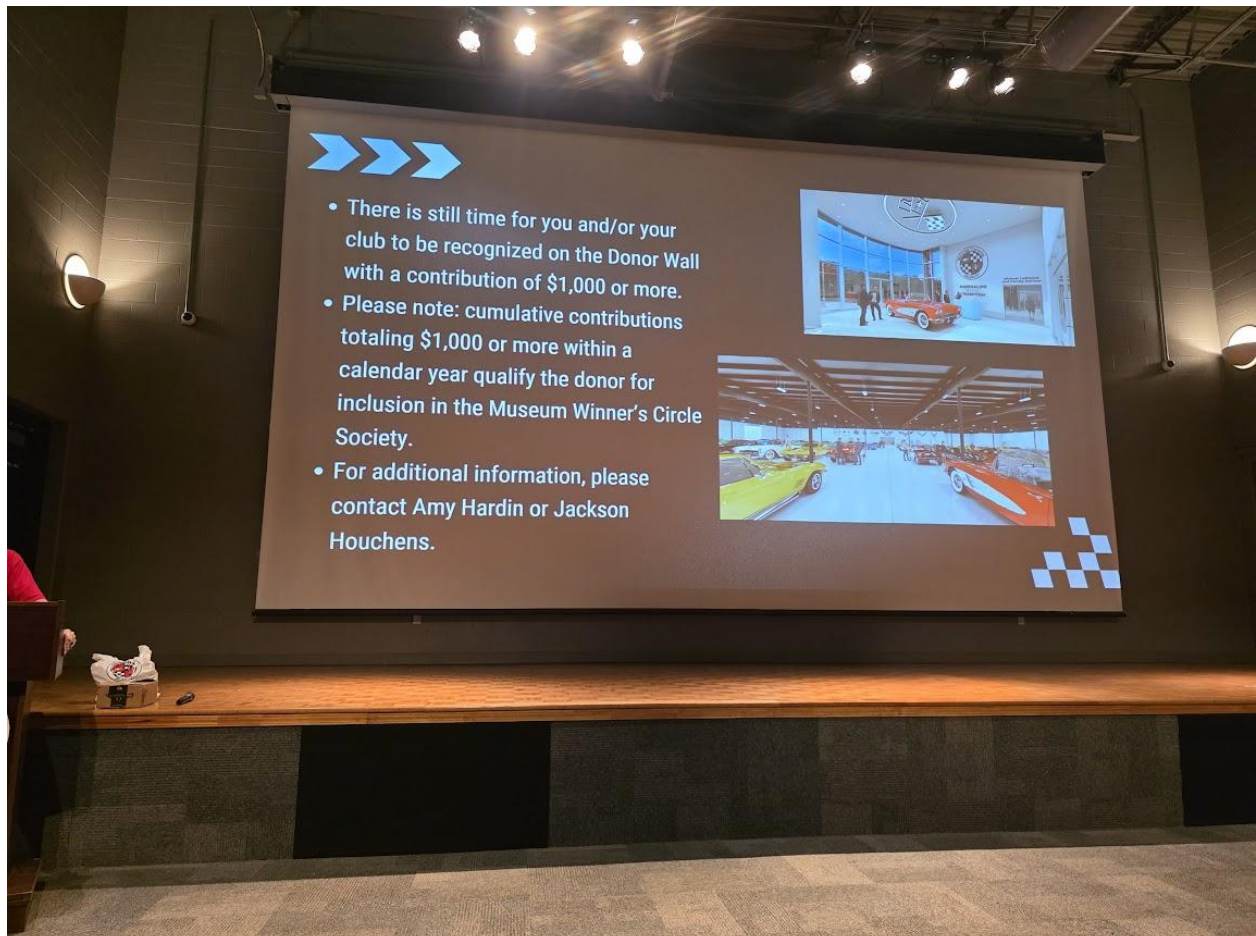

Circle City Corvette Club+,
Sixty members at the 2026
NCM Bash presented a
Check for over $6000 to NCM.

NEW COLLECTIONS FACILITY

Donations of $1000 or more will be recognized in the new entryway.

Deadline July 1st.

We were shuttled to the build site on the trolley and given a presentation regarding content and usage of the 66,000 sq. ft. facility. Expecting a soft opening in August and planned tours by Early 2027. This facility will offer separate admission than the Museum.

2027 Grand Sport Cutaway, Admiral Blue and new wheel.

New 6.7 Engine

General Motors was on hand answering questions about engine, Grand Sport models etc.

About 12 or more Grand Sport Corvettes on hand in various models and colors.

Grand Sport X below.

Tim McMichael

Board of Director Special Edition – Stars and Steel took delivery at the Bash. Unlike other owners Tim wanted the ropes removed so spectators could view touch and sit in the car. Note new Santorini Blue interior.

NEW SWEEPSTAKES_ 2012 ZR1

Special Ambassador Tour of the Kirby Museum was held with a pizza party following.

NCM Motorsports Park

Lots of new exciting things, Corvette Today featured a entire broadcast explaining all the programs and options as well as sharing the future plans for the park. Tune in the Podcast today..
