919 Whipped Cream finish

Azalea ●

This collection is a straightforward design of classic and traditional lines combined with a finishing technique to reflect today's contemporary lifestyle. The combination of simple lines and few carvings makes this group easy to live with. Trisha Yearwood was clear in her direction. Do not overdo it. Do not get too fancy. She demands comfort and insisted at every turn that we go simple and comfortable. Many of the designs are inspired by her various pieces in her home, but also simple designs she loves. Trisha also worked with our designer to make sure we captured the classic traditional lines that reflect her style throughout her collection. Casters have been added to the cocktail table for easy positioning. Also available in the 920 Coffee finish.

Cadence

574 collection ●

Add some life to your living room with Cadence, a contemporary occasional table collection that combines function and style with glass tops coupled with a warm deep finish. This architecturally inspired table group will undeniably be the focal point of any living room. The bases of the tables have two decorative triangle panels that are connected by two cylinder shaped stretchers that support the angled asymmetrical legs that are the inspiration of this table. Brushed nickel pucks attach to the legs to make the glass top with beveled edges appears to be “floating” above the table.

Hayden 764 collection ●

Hayden Occasional pairs simple, yet beautiful mid-century modern designs with gorgeous walnut veneers and a rich walnut finish. The cocktail, chair side, end and sofa table tops have pie-matched or fan-matched walnut veneers for drama. Legs are generously-shaped bowed curves that look a bit like the staves in the sides of a barrel. The round cocktail and end tables have a circular shelf at the base, resting on a stretcher shaped to echo the bowed legs. The cocktail table is on casters for mobility. The chair side table has a shelf that rests just above the floor and its edges are pierced by the legs. A demilune shaped base that holds a slightly larger shelf completes the sofa table.

Park Row 918 collection ●

Contemporary design elements feature the beauty of the elm veneer grain patterns in this occasional collection. All tabletops are edged with elm veneer bands, joined at the corners with a miter (like a picture frame). The cocktail tabletop features 2 insets of smoked tempered, beveled glass flanking the beauty of the elm veneer used for the center section. Below the glass insets are open display areas on either side of the drawer. Another open shelf is situated below the drawer and display area. Casters have been added to the cocktail table for easy positioning. A similar configuration with inset, beveled glass, one drawer, open display areas and 2 lower shelves is used for the sofa table. The end table and chairside table each have one drawer and one lower shelf. Black nickel hardware.
