After planning, prepping and pulling off your dream wedding, with all the joy and craziness of things that go wrong and even things that go right, wouldn't it be wonderful to finally relax, hand over the reins and have someone else take care of your needs, freeing you to explore exotic places around the world with your new spouse?

The growing trend of destination weddings is followed closely by the desire for exotic honeymoon locales that not only offer relaxation and rejuvenation but also adventures to share as you begin your new life together.

Perhaps you want to turn your dream honeymoon into a reality with an exotic river cruise that takes you through Vietnam and Cambodia. Our Mekong itinerary offers exclusive excursions that let you discover a world of enlightening cultural and spiritual encounters so that every moment of your journey is one you'll remember forever.

See freshly-stocked floating markets bring the river to life, then in between each exciting exploration, indulge yourselves on board – with a calming spa treatment, regionally-inspired cuisine and a dip in the pool. Or sip a glass of champagne as you enjoy the lush-green view from your plush balcony stateroom.

Or discover the unspoiled beauty and riches of the Far East as you travel with AmaWaterways on a luxury River Cruise through Myanmar, Burma. Your "all-suite" 56-passenger ship will be your home away from home as you experience delectable cuisine and impeccable service, journeying along the legendary Ayeyarwady River. Each day explore rich culture and hidden treasures in a world that, until recently, could only be imagined. Interact with the local people during complimentary daily excursions as you witness for yourself a land where sparkling Golden Pagodas dust the view. Afterwards return to your ship for a refreshing dip in the pool or enjoy a glass of wine on your private balcony. Whatever you can dream, awaits you on your AmaWaterways voyage.

Perhaps a safari honeymoon on the bright and airy 28-passenger Zambezi Queen, which was specifically designed for African river safaris on Botswana and Namibia's Chobe River, is the perfect combination of luxury and adventure. From the ship you are likely to observe elephants, hippos and crocodiles, as well as flocks of birds and other wildlife gathering along the shoreline. On board, you'll enjoy modern accommodations, delicious cuisine and an excellent vantage point for observing the surrounding animal neighbors. The ship's top deck features an enclosed air-conditioned dining room, lounge and bar—plus an open-air pool deck for relaxing, taking a refreshing dip or 360-degree game watching. The Zambezi Queen was designed to function as a floating safari lodge and to facilitate optimal game viewing. As the ship leisurely drifts along, you'll encounter amazingly up-close views of animals coming to the river to drink or bathe.

Whether you lean toward exotic adventure or European luxury, AmaWaterways guests, creates an amazingly unique journey that even the most intrepid guests will remember for a lifetime. www.amawaterways.com

PARIS

The French capital might as well be named the capital of romance – the absolutely perfect place for everyone from newlyweds to longtime loves to all those couples in between. Paris exudes amour, whether on walks along the famed Seine River, rendezvous in tiny street cafes, trips to famed and fabulous landmarks or shopping (of course!) on the Champs Elysees and Golden Triangle. Hotels abound in the City of Lights, each arrondissement (or neighborhood) brimming with their own personalities and spots to stay. Two in particular delighted us for their combination of location, glamour, style, service and amenities.

FOUR SEASONS HOTEL GEORGE V

Located in the upscale 8th Arrondissement in the heart of the city and The Golden Triangle, this elegant five-star hotel has private terraces that overlook the City of Lights. The inside of the property is all Parisian elegance and charm, filled with 18th-century tapestries, paintings and objects d'art, not to mention artistic floral arrangements overseen by the hotel's famed artistic director, Jeff Leatham, who even holds floral arranging classes!

Book an exclusive wine tasting in the hotel's legendary wine cellar 46 feet underground to sample the collection of more than 50,000 bottles. Or make reservations at the hotel's three-Michelin star Le Cinq restaurant, and enjoy the food and wine pairing recommendations of award-winning sommelier and restaurant director Eric Beaumard.

Stay in and make appointments for famed spa treatments worthy of Parisian skin care and beauty or step out just a few doors away the finest stores, museums and sites of the city. www.fourseasons.com/paris

THE PENINSULA PARIS

The recently-opened hotel maintains the architectural splendor of the original 1908 grand Parisian hotel it housed, but has been carefully restored and updated. The location is perfection—in the elegant 16th Arrondissement, close to the city's best shopping, dining and cultural attractions.

Although the hotel is located steps from the city's best attractions, it's still tempting to take advantage of the stable of cars the hotel keeps for guests to travel around town in style: a restored vintage 1934 Rolls-Royce Phantom II, flagship BMWs, a classic Citroen custom, and a Peninsula Edition Mini Cooper S Hardtop—ideal for meandering down narrow backstreets.

Ride or walk to some of the most well-known sites, or see them through the eyes of the Peninsula Academy including a behind-the-scenes tour of Versailles that gets you into rooms and spaces that are not accessible on the regular tours. There is also a Fashionista Fantasy shopping experience, a Day at the Opera as well as a Kids' Candy Wonderland class with the Peninsula's famed pastry chef.

After it all, dine in one of the hotel's six restaurants, including the rooftop L'Oiseau Blanc with 360-degree views of Paris's iconic monuments. www.Paris.peninsula.com

CAPE COD

Like a whimsical wave curling off the coast of Massachusetts, Cape Cod is a curved stretch of coastline dotted with quaint New England towns and harbors, unspoiled beaches bordered with dunes, beaoning lighthouses and weathered, shingled colonials. Cape Cod is a playground for celebrities, captains of industry, politicians and presidents alike. While chilly winters offer cozy getaways, the spring, summer and early fall months are idyllic times for sun and fun. There are miles of bike paths, clambakes and fine dining, chic shopping, sailing and sunset cruises, vineyards and whale watching. Many in-the-know Cape Cod visitors rent houses in towns like Chatham, Harwich, Hyannis and Provincetown or stay in one of the luxe resorts or boutique hotels sprinkled across the beaches and town.

WEQUASSETT RESORT AND GOLF CLUB

Tucked into the elbow of Cape Cod, The Wequasset Resort and Golf Club in Harwich overlooks Pleasant Bay and the Atlantic beyond. The classic gray-shingled resort houses 120 guest rooms and suites that offer a lavish respite after a day frolicking in the sand, surf or down Main Street.

Shuttle to outer beaches or walk right down to a chaise on the calm waters of the bay. Enjoy a four-star, four-diamond meal at famed Twenty-Eight Atlantic restaurant or one of the other three delicious on-property dining spots. Remember to take a light jacket if you are dining at night al fresco since you must experience dinner against a New England ocean breeze.

The two pools overlooking the bay, vast beaches, cabanas and manicured lawns offer plenty of places to relax or play, and there are playing rights for guests at the prestigious neighboring Cape Cod National Golf Club.

The epitome of a classic New England vacation, might we suggest packing a few collared shirts and your preppiest shorts and dresses for dinner. 2173 Route 28, East Harwich, MA 02645, 800.225.7125. www.wequasset.com

CHATHAM INN AT 359 MAIN

So many of the finest properties in Cape Cod are the quaint New England boutique hotels, like the Chatham Inn at 359 Main. This five-star hotel, rated the #1 hotel in Cape Cod, has been renovated and completely refurbished over the past two years and is a romantic spot situated just at the peaceful end of Chatham's charming Main Street.

The grand front porch with inviting rockers is a picturesque place to sit and watch other folks stroll by. Wood plank floors and wicker furniture set the scene for a New England vacation. A gourmet breakfast, served fireside in the brand new dining room or on the patio, is included in your stay. There's also the intimate Chatham wine bar and restaurant, pairing fine wines with fine French cuisine.

The shopping village of Chatham, rife with gourmet restaurants, Lighthouse Beach, shopping spots, galleries, theatres and more is an easy walk from the 18-room hotel. A short ride away are beaches, boat excursions and golf courses to round out the experience. 359 Main St, Chatham, MA 02633, 508.945.9232. www.359main.com
