Newport Beach

The Resort at Pelican Hill

Experience a luxurious oasis nestled on the coast of Newport Beach. From the moment of arrival at The Resort at Pelican Hill, you'll experience a place like no other. The relaxed comfort of Pelican Hill takes inspiration from the grand villas of the Italian countryside. Like the Mediterranean, the sun-drenched climate of Southern California allows the indoor spaces to open up to the outdoors, drawing in the panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean. Sprawled out along three and a half miles of beautiful coastline, Pelican Hill sits on top of Crystal Cove Beach, one of the last nature preserves remaining in Southern California. In this idyllic setting, guests can enjoy two 18-hole oceanfront golf courses designed by Tom Fazio, take a dip in the iconic 136-foot coliseum-style swimming pool, or enjoy the never-ending views while dining on the terrace.

The resort offers guests two different types of luxury accommodations, either the cozy bungalows—featuring hand-hewn wood beam ceilings, cozy limestone fireplaces and marble baths—or the Grand Villas with two, three and four-bedroom options. The Villas are located in a private enclave within the resort and feature attentive butlers, concierge service, house-keeping and front desk staff working around the clock to ensure your stay is effortless, with all the comforts of home you would want for an extended stay.

In addition to swimming, surfing and kayaking in the sparkling blue waters of Crystal Cove, visitors can also stroll the sandy beach, explore tide pools and jog or cycle along trails that meander through the canyon. Newport Beach's famous

The Spa also offers an expansive bridal suite where brides and their bridal party can pamper and prepare for the big day.

Speaking of weddings, Pelican Hill is one of the most sought after wedding venues in all of Southern California. The same can be said about hosting a wedding at The Resort at Pelican Hill, where the sweeping ocean views, scenic pathways and authentic Italian architecture will take your breath away.
