

IRIOSH – GLOBAL INVITATION

“Advancing Safer, Healthier, and More Dignified Workplaces Worldwide”

Invitation to the IRIOSH Global Occupational Safety, Health and Worker Well-being Summit and Co-located Events of Safety & Security ASIA 2026

Dear IRIOSH Global Community and Collaborators,

On behalf of the International Research Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (IRIOSH), and in my capacity as Industry Ambassador for The Health & Safety Event Asia 2026, it is my great pleasure to invite researchers, regulators, practitioners, policymakers, students, worker representatives, and industry leaders from around the world to participate in the IRIOSH Global Occupational Safety, Health and Worker Well-being Summit 2026, taking place on 11 November 2026, alongside additional programme activities scheduled from 10–12 November 2026 at the Sands Expo & Convention Centre, Singapore.

As workplaces and global communities continue to evolve through technological innovation, demographic shifts, globalization, and emerging risks, international collaboration has never been more important. This summit provides an inclusive platform for sharing research, innovative practices, policy developments, and practical solutions that contribute to safer, healthier, and more dignified workplaces worldwide.

The IRIOSH Global Occupational Safety, Health and Worker Well-being Summit 2026 will be held in collaboration with The Health & Safety Event ASIA and supported by APOSHO (Asia Pacific Occupational Safety and Health Organization, a leadership voice in the region), as part of The Safety & Security Asia 2026, which comprises five co-located international events:

- The Security Event Asia
- The Fire Safety Event Asia
- The Health & Safety Event Asia
- The Emergency Services Show Asia
- Pro Integration Future Asia

Event Dates: 10–12 November 2026 Venue: Sands Expo & Convention Centre, Singapore

(1) IRIOSH has secured complimentary registration for members of the IRIOSH global community, providing access to the exhibition and co-located events throughout the three-day programme.

(2) Participation in IRIOSH-specific activities—including Abstract Presentations, Poster Presentations, Distinguished Speaker Sessions, Expert Roundtable Discussions, and the IRIOSH Awards & Recognition Ceremony—will be managed through a separate registration and selection process. Further details will be announced soon.

We warmly welcome your participation and look forward to meeting you in Singapore as we work together to advance occupational safety, health, worker well-being, and sustainable workplaces worldwide.

We look forward to welcoming you to Singapore on 11 November 2026.

Dr. Arjun Kathayat
