The Forgotten Lunch Box

One Monday morning, Meera was excited to go on a school picnic. She packed her favourite sandwiches, fruits, and a juice box in her lunch bag. When the bus reached the park, everyone got ready to eat. Meera opened her school bag and suddenly realised that she had left her lunch box at home.

She felt sad, but her classmates noticed her worried face. Without being asked, they shared their food with her. Soon, Meera had plenty to eat, and everyone enjoyed lunch together. She thanked her friends for their kindness and promised to help others whenever they needed it.

On the way back home, Meera understood that true friends always care for one another and that sharing brings happiness to everyone.
