SECTION – A (READING)

[10]

1. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Once there was a shoemaker. He became very poor. He was left with only leather, which could make one pair of shoes. He cut the leather and thought that he would sew the leather next morning. The next morning when he went to his shop he found that the leather had been used to make a fine pair of shoes which easily got sold. He bought leather for two pairs of shoes and left it in the shop, the next morning he again found that two pairs of fine shoes had been made. They fetched him good money. This went on and on and he became a very rich man. One day he decided to see who made shoes for him. He hid behind a curtain and waited. Two tiny Elves entered through the window and in no time stitched the shoes and went away. The shoemaker and his wife decided to do something for the elves. His wife said that she would make clothes for them and the shoemaker decided to make pairs of shoes for their barefeet. The next night, when the elves came into the shop, they were very happy to find clothes and shoes for them. Nobody saw them again and good luck always stayed with the shoemaker.
