

Host Gym Code of Conduct

Warriors Unleashed is committed to providing a competitive, safe, fun, and fair environment for all participants, regardless of geographical location or ability level. We want our Host Gyms to share this vision for the sport of ninja. To achieve this goal, we expect our gyms to abide by the following Host Gym Code of Conduct. Failure to abide by these terms may result in probation, suspension, or expulsion of the Host Gym Gym from hosting current or future Warriors Unleashed events. For the purposes of this Code of Conduct, “Host Gym” refers to ALL EMPLOYEES of the Warriors Unleashed Host Gym Gym. Unless specifically noted, this Code of Conduct is in place for the entirety of the season and may be enforced by Warriors Unleashed at any time. This Code of Conduct will automatically renew at the end of the season, unless specifically modified by Warriors Unleashed.

- Host Gym will treat each Warriors Unleashed participant (including, but not limited to: athletes, coaches, officials, parents, or volunteers) with respect and dignity.
- Host Gym will prioritize athlete safety at all times.
- Host Gym will work to provide a fair and equitable competition for all athletes.
- Host Gym will not disparage, insult, or demonstrate/encourage any other type of unsportsmanlike behavior in words or actions towards another gym, coach, athlete, official, or volunteer.
- During Host Gym’s Warriors Unleashed events, Host Gym will not show favoritism towards any one athlete or group of athletes.
- During Host Gym’s Warriors Unleashed events, Host Gym will uphold the Spirit of the Obstacle and encourage the athlete’s best effort and attempt at EACH obstacle on the course.
- During Host Gym’s Warriors Unleashed events, Host Gym will encourage the athletes to challenge themselves against the course, not against the other athletes.
