

Warriors Unleashed Athlete Code of Conduct

Warriors Unleashed is committed to providing a competitive, safe, fun, and fair environment for all participants, regardless of geographical location or ability level. We want our athletes to share this vision for the sport of ninja. To achieve this goal, we expect our athletes to abide by the following Athlete Code of Conduct. Failure to abide by these terms may result in probation, suspension, or expulsion of the Athlete from participating in current or future Warriors Unleashed events. For the purposes of this Code of Conduct, “Athlete” refers to ALL ATHLETES who choose to participate in ANY Warriors Unleashed event. Unless specifically noted, this Code of Conduct is in place for the entirety of the season and may be enforced by Warriors Unleashed at any time. This Code of Conduct will automatically renew at the end of the season, unless specifically modified by Warriors Unleashed.

- Athlete will treat each Warriors Unleashed participant (including, but not limited to: athletes, coaches, officials, parents, gyms owners, or volunteers) with respect and dignity.
- Athlete will compete in a fair manner and to the best of their ability, both with regards to the Skills Sheet assessment and the running of the course.
- Athlete will not disparage, insult, or demonstrate/encourage any other type of unsportsmanlike behavior towards another gym, coach, athlete, official, or volunteer.
- Athlete will work to set a good example with regards to words and actions, keeping in mind that they are demonstrating appropriate behavior to all who are attending.
- Athlete will abide by the rules of the host gym or organization, and treat all host equipment and facilities with respect.
- During Warriors Unleashed events, Athlete will uphold the Spirit of the Obstacle and commit to work THROUGH the obstacles, not AROUND them.

By participating in a Warriors Unleashed event, Athlete agrees to abide by this Code of Conduct for the duration of the season. The determination of any potential violation of this agreement and subsequent consequence or action shall be solely with the discretion of Warriors Unleashed.
