

Summer Is Here

This summer is set to be a season of transformation—where bold ideas come to life, lives are uplifted, and lasting impact takes root. We're planting seeds of change, and the momentum is only growing. Stay tuned — something special for Phenomenal Angels is on the way!

This past quarter, our journey of discovery took us in bold and exciting directions.

We explored the power and pitfalls of Social Media, engaged in vital conversations around Women's Health, and rolled up our sleeves to assemble Robots with Tech Arts — blending creativity, wellness, and innovation in unforgettable ways. Each experience sparked curiosity, built skills, and reminded us of the limitless potential within our youth.

We were honored to attend a series of powerful community events that uplifted voices, celebrated unity, and inspired action.

From our empowering Girls Empowerment Dinner—where young women shined in a safe and affirming space — to the dynamic Los Angeles Youth Expo, where youth leadership and innovation took center stage, and the United Teachers LA MLK Jr. Banquet, where we reflected on the legacy of justice and equality, each event reminded us of the strength, brilliance, and resilience within our community.

One of the most powerful moments this quarter was attending CSSJ's Survivors Speak — an unforgettable gathering of strength, healing, and advocacy.

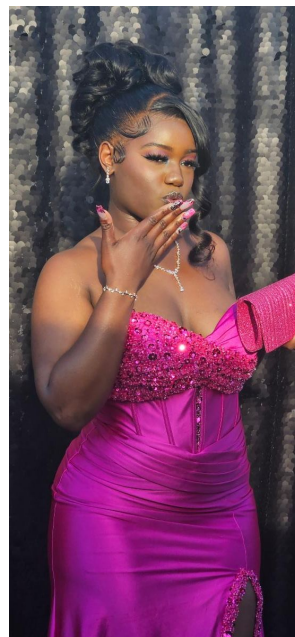

Survivors from across the state raised their voices to demand change, share their stories, and stand in solidarity for justice and safety. Being part of this movement reminded us why our work matters and reignited our commitment to elevating the voices of those most impacted. Together, we are not just speaking—we are transforming systems and reclaiming power.

Another heartfelt highlight was seeing our girls step into Prom Season with confidence, joy, and radiant pride.

From choosing the perfect dress to capturing picture-perfect moments, we watched them shine — celebrating not just a milestone, but the strength, resilience, and beauty they carry into every space. It was more than a dance; it was a celebration of their journey, their growth, and the bright futures ahead.

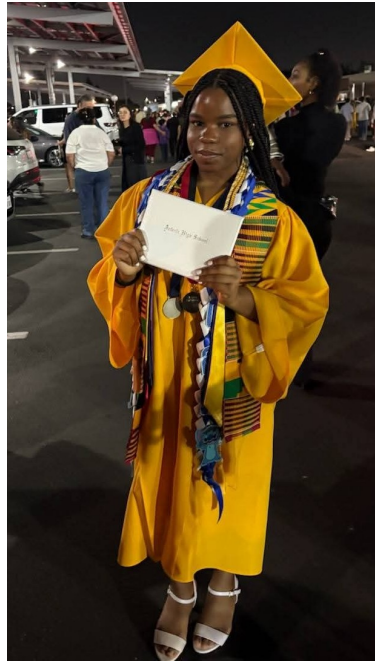

Ongoing training continues to be a cornerstone of our mission.

This quarter, our team engaged in impactful sessions with LA CADA, Southern California Ceasefire, and Crime Survivors for Safety and Justice. These trainings deepened our understanding of trauma-informed care, community healing, and advocacy — strengthening our ability to serve with compassion and intention. They didn't just sharpen our skills — they reignited our passion, safety, and support.

We also celebrated one of the most meaningful milestones of all — graduation.

Watching our youth walk across the stage, diplomas in hand and dreams in motion, reminded us exactly why we do this work. Each cap tossed into the air symbolized perseverance, growth, and the promise of a bright future. We couldn't be prouder of their accomplishments and can't wait to see where their journeys lead.

We wrapped up the quarter with a joyful dinner at Buca di Beppo Italian Restaurant — sharing good food, laughter, and unforgettable memories.

More than just a meal, it was a moment to reflect on our progress, celebrate our wins, and strengthen the bonds that make our community feel like family. Moments like these remind us that together, we are unstoppable.

Looking Ahead

As we enter the next quarter, we're filled with excitement and purpose. New programs, deeper partnerships, and even more opportunities to uplift our youth and strengthen our community are on the horizon. From hands-on workshops and leadership development to wellness initiatives and creative exploration—this next chapter promises to be transformational. Stay connected — the best is yet to come!
