The Ministry of Reconciliation

21st Century apostolic ministry requires dedication, fortitude, perseverance, strong ethics and deep conviction. We have been called to the Kingdom for such a time as this! Are you the kind of person that longs for solid leadership, guidance and direction? Are you ready to use your God gifted talents for the glory of the Lord?

RPI strives to be a home for all disenfranchised Pentecostals no matter what got you there! Our goal is to assist those who are struggling or confused in understanding where they really stand with God. We all know that the traditional Pentecostal church has misunderstood and often been quite offensive with their approach to GLBT people and the subject of homosexuality. Though we vehemently disagree with that position, we realize most of us came from that same mindset, but now understand that God does have gay children. Unless God is allowed to reveal the Truth on this matter to our pastors or our family, we are better off and more productive moving on – taking a positive stand – and then assisting those who are ready to hear the “really good news!”

In order for this to happen, we welcome ministers, pastors, elders, SS teachers and our wonderfully gifted singers, musicians and ministers of music to find RPI to be a place where they can continue their ministry. Many ministers, after coming out, have thought there would never again be a place for them to use their call and gifting. But, that is just not true. We are not a surprise to God – He is our Creator! RPI affirms that God did not make a mistake when He called you. There is a harvest field that awaits our message of hope.

RPI presently offers an expanding training program for those who feel a call of God on their life, but perhaps never answered that call because of feelings of inferiority or unworthiness relating to their orientation or gender. Our fellowship is open to those individuals who are now ready to go forward in their calling. Our educational training and mentoring system is in place to assist those who need further knowledge and grooming in Biblical studies, doctrine and experience. Please take a moment to pray about RPI. We are anxious to hear from you.

Reconciling Pentecostals

RPI Bible College is an outreach ministry of Reconciling Pentecostals International, a Christian organization of several churches, ministers and ministries, both nationally and internationally. As an outreach ministry of RPI, RPI Bible College adheres to RPI's Statement of Faith.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in...

One True God who manifested Himself as the Father in creation, Son in redemption, and the Holy Ghost in regeneration. The Father is the fullness of God invisible. The Son is the embodiment of God's fullness in flesh. The Holy Ghost is the fullness of God in the church by emanation. Deut. 6:4; Isaiah 43:10-11; Hosea 13:4; Mark 12:29 & 32; I Cor. 8:4-6; I Tim. 2:5; James 2:19.

Christ's Absolute Deity as the One True, Almighty God manifest in the flesh. Jesus Christ was fully human and fully divine. We believe in His virgin birth, sinless life, miraculous ministry, substitutionary death and bodily resurrection. II Cor. 5:18; Isaiah 7:14; Matt. 1:23; Heb. 4:15; Acts 10:38; II Cor. 5:21; Acts 2:31-32; John 1:1 & 14; John 10:30; Colossians 1:9; 2:9; Col. 1:19; II Cor. 4:6; I Tim. 4:10; Titus 2:13; Jude 25.

The Bible is utterly trustworthy and reliable as the final authority for faith and practice. It is the divinely inspired, infallible Word of God and as such must be understood and interpreted correctly, maintaining its original historical and cultural context. We make no contention for a perfect translation but believe that the Bible as we know it today is trustworthy and reliable as the final authority for faith and practice. II Timothy 3:16; Matthew 24:35.

A Sinful Nature has been inherited by every person who has also sinned of their own volition, making them sinners in need of a Savior. Psalm 51:5; Romans 3:23.

The Salvation experience is received by grace, through faith in the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. Salvation is initiated by God and calls for our surrender and acceptance. It is available to all who receive it. God's grace is appropriated through faith, which we demonstrate by obeying the New Testament plan of salvation as preached by the early church. Today, as then, a person is saved (born again) by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, which is evidenced by obediently identifying with His death, burial and resurrection, accomplished by the Blood of Jesus through:

- the death of our "old man" in repentance.
- the burial of our sinful nature in baptism by total immersion in water, into the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. This act is the New Testament circumcision of the heart that is a sign of God's covenant with those who are called by His Name.
- our resurrection to newness of life through the infilling/baptism of the Holy Ghost with the initial evidence of speaking with other tongues. This birth of the Spirit is for us today and was the expected experience of every New Testament believer.

- These serve as conduits of our faith toward God and His grace toward us.
- References include: John 3:3-5; Mark 16:16 & 17; Acts 2:4,38-39; Acts 8:16; Acts 10:46-48; Acts 19: 5-6; Acts 22:16; I Cor. 14:5,18; Romans 8:9,11,15 & 16, I John 5:8; I Corinthians 15:1-4; Hebrews 9:22; Romans 6:4-6; Titus 3:5.

Holiness unto the Lord and separation from evil and all addictions of the flesh is essential and should characterize everyone who has been spiritually regenerated. We are to flee worldliness and carnality in pursuit of the righteousness of God in our lives. I Peter 1:15-16; I Thess. 5:22; II Cor. 6:17; I John 2:15.

Our Mission is to make disciples, relieve suffering and minister to those in need. Matt. 28:19; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:47; Acts 1:8; Matt. 25:35-46; James 1:27; I Cor. 11:23-30.

Healing and Deliverance has been provided by God in the atonement and can be manifested in response to the prayer of faith. Luke 10:9; Mark 16:18; James 5:14-16; I Peter 2:24.

Jesus Christ's Impending Return for His church will happen at the appointed time, and someday all will stand before Him to receive eternal reward or face eternal punishment. There will be a literal seven-year tribulation during which time the anti-Christ will be revealed. Following the Tribulation, the Battle of Armageddon will be fought and will culminate in Christ's victory and His one-thousand-year reign of peace. There will be a final judgment where the souls of men and women will be assigned eternal reward or punishment in a literal Heaven or Hell. Matt. 24; I Cor. 15:15, 52; I Thess. 4:13-17; Rev. 7:14; Rev. 16:16; I John 2:18; II Thess. 2:3-4; Revelation 7 & 19:1-22.

Intimate Relations, Marriage and Divorce. Since we have been baptized into Christ and have put on Christ according to Galatians 3:27-28, there is no longer a distinction between Jew and Greek, bond and free, male and female since we are all one in Christ. And whereas God is no respecter of persons (Acts 10:34), we believe same-sex relationships are held to exactly the same Biblical standard as heterosexual relationships in the sight of God. Marriage is a sacred, lifelong covenant between two people and their God, in which sexual fidelity is maintained. We call upon human governments to recognize the equality and dignity of same-sex unions, providing all the same benefits afforded their heterosexual counterparts. Until such time as this equality is realized, we encourage those entering into same-sex unions to acknowledge their sacred marriage vows before God in a specific ceremony witnessed by others.

With regards to sexual conduct, we strongly admonish our ministers and members to conduct themselves according to the Bible standard of intimate relations. We acknowledge one standard for all individuals, regardless of sexual orientation. We believe the only acceptable form of sexual expression between two people is that which takes place within the context of total commitment and marriage. Hebrews 13:4

A Message from the Chief Presiding Presbyter of RPI

Dear RPI Bible College Candidates,

As ministers of the gospel we are instructed to "Work hard (study) so you can present yourself to God and receive his approval. Be a good worker, one who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly explains the word of truth." II Timothy 2:15 NLT

Reconciling Pentecostals International wishes to raise the bar of academia among those called to ministry by our Lord Jesus Christ. For those who are already involved with ministry and have time limitations, pursuing a higher level of education can be problematic and prohibitive which can easily lead to procrastination. In our desire to prepare ministers for their unique ministry needed in our affirming and inclusive ranks today, it would be unfair and detrimental to the preacher for us to not provide and require sufficient training. Further, to prevent the called one from giving up in despair for lack of preparation, it is RPI's conviction that a well rounded academic and spiritual foundation is necessary in the preparation process. As God continues to bless RPI with qualified ministers and those willing to contribute from their knowledge and wisdom, we will do our best to improve our educational process offerings.

We are pleased to present our newest version of training and structuring for our ministerial candidates. They are offered on different levels in relation to our licensing and ordination process. We also feel it is very important for our ordained ministers to maintain their status by participation in our Leadership Continuing Education program developed specifically according to our desired standards. One day we hope to have online training with live teachers and immediate scoring of exams. In the meantime, dig in and enjoy what is offered. Be a good steward of your time as a diligent student should be. God will bless you in your efforts to be a "good worker" in the field of labor the Lord God Himself has called you to.

May the Lord bless you in your calling!

Bishop Randy Duncan, Chief Presiding Presbyter

RPI Education Coordinator, Rev. Dr.

Fellow Students:

There is a difference between being “called” and being “sent.” In order to correctly handle the Word of Truth, we must be diligent learners of the Holy Scriptures. We must seek revelation and knowledge of key elements of the ministry, so that once sent, we may be instant in season and out, always prepared to give a reason for the hope that we have in Jesus Christ.

Paul admonishes Christians in his letter to Timothy (II Timothy 2:15) to study, to show ourselves approved. Not only will an education in the ministry improve our effectiveness in delivering the message of the gospel, but it will also develop our integrity, character, doctrine, and discipline, so that we may present ourselves as a workman who doesn’t need to be ashamed. Who, without any formal education, would consider themselves qualified to teach? In the same manner, a soldier would not enter into battle without preparation or without armor. Ephesians 6:13-17 lists “the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” and tells us to have our “feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace.” Not only must we study the Word, but prior to being ‘sent,’ we must be made ready by knowing the Word – by making it a part of who we are.

As our former education coordinator, Dr. Edith Baker said, “You have stated your ‘call’ and now, preparing to embark on a journey. This journey will not be easy, nor should it be. This journey will cost you time, energy and resources, for anything obtained without cost, is esteemed of less value.” As the story of David clearly states; “And King David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.” I Chronicles 21:24

Prayers and Blessings to you as you hearken to your calling!

His Humble Servant,
Rev. Dr. Shawn Key, Au.D.
RPI Education Coordinator

Mission Statement

The mission of RPI Bible College is to equip Christ-centered men and women, with sound Christian faith and character, for leadership service in life, work, ministry and missions through Christian education that encourages godly conduct, personal growth, readiness for service and spiritual development through professional and academic excellence.

Rationale Statement

RPI welcomes all inquiries into our Bible College. Candidates who seek fellowship with our family of ministers, churches and ministries, are received based on the criteria set forth in this catalog. We prayerfully review each application to ensure that RPI maintains its spiritual integrity. We realize that the doctrinal foundation on which we stand and the mission that God gave us many years ago, must not be sacrificed at the altar of accommodation. It is imperative that each candidate understand who we are, and what we believe, the goal and mission of RPI, as well as the doctrinal beliefs, Statement of Faith, Constitution and By-laws in order to produce an enduring and harmonious covenant relationship. RPI is equipped to mentor and help train new ministers answering the call of God. We feel it is very important to be accountable to those in authority that God places in your life. RPI is conscientious of our duties and responsibilities and therefore caution those seeking credentialing, of their accountability to the leadership of RPI, and their respective churches or ministries. Ministry is our life, not just something we enjoy doing. It is therefore our desire to encourage and assist committed men and women who are ready to enlist in this great army of the Lord.

All students who have completed RPI College coursework may seek credentialing through RPI. Any student who has subsequently applied for and received the appropriate credentialing with RPI, and remain in good standing, shall be authorized to perform weddings, bless unions, bury the deceased and perform other such duties as are commonly required of the ministry. Upon reaching the level of General License, ministers are eligible to vote on any item that comes before the body of ministers. All ministers' standing in the fellowship shall be reviewed by the RPI board annually. To maintain a license, a minister is absolutely required to remain: involved in a regular, tangible ministry, accountable, godly, supportive of the fellowship financially, cooperative and submissive in the Spirit of Christ, a harmonious worker with other RPI ministers and in compliance with all scriptural requirements as set forth in I Timothy, chapter 3 and Titus, chapter 1. An ordination or any license may be revoked by the RPI board at any time there is proven to be just cause.

Leading Principles

“And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses; the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.” (II Timothy 2:2, KJV).

“Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” (II Timothy 2:15 KJV)

Independent Study Courses

RPI Bible College offers Independent Study Courses, which may be completed at the student's own pace over a 24-month period from the start date. This program is ideal for individuals who feel the call to ministry who are also balancing the demands of family, church, and work. RPI College Courses are carefully designed to let everyone set their own pace, with deadlines to complete their assignments within a 24-month period from the start date. Internet, UPS and postal delivery give students the option to access any study materials they may need and to submit completed work for examination by the education committee.

Method of Evaluation

The evaluation of each course of study at RPI Bible College will be done using a variety of formats such as, but not limited to: written responses to questions, book critiques, research papers, public presentation and internships.

Student Dismissal

RPI Bible College reserves the right at any time, to place on probation or dismiss any student whose academic standing or progress, financial obligations, or public or private behavior is deemed not satisfactory by the Educational Committee, RPI Bible College or RPI Board.

Skill/Learning Objectives/Outcomes:

1. Students of RPI Bible College will develop basic skills of examination, understanding, and application, in their study of the Bible.
2. Students will identify and explain the significance of themes, events, historical importance, cultural meaning, and personalities found in the Old and New Testaments.
3. Students will identify and describe pertinent background, interpretive questions and relevant information pertaining to books found in the Old and New Testaments.
4. Students will apply appropriately to life and service the biblical teachings and principles learned in their course of study.
5. Students will develop the ability to adapt their studies to practical application.
6. Students will acquire necessary ministerial, biblical, counseling and ethical skills to advance in church leadership.
7. Students will develop critical evaluative skills in interpreting Christian literature as well as an ability to communicate these skills to others.

Personal Spiritual Development Objectives:

1. To develop a personal/spiritual appreciation for the Christian/apostolic heritage.
2. To instill a desire for lifelong commitment to personal spiritual growth through daily Bible study and prayer.
3. To develop attitudes of service and commitment to the local church.
4. To equip individuals with a Christian worldview that enables them to manifest a biblically separated lifestyle.
5. To foster Christian culture, developing refinement, appreciation, social attitudes, and skills.

The student who completes these series of programs will be able to demonstrate a general knowledge of the Bible, biblical teachings, ministry skills, Christian ethics and morals, with an emphasis on the practical application of these in ministry situations.

These biblical-based studies will serve as a foundation for building a spiritually sound ministry, and will provide students with practical ministry understanding and experiences upon which to build a ministry that is God-centered and operates in Biblical excellence.

Standards of Writing

Students pursuing any study should also work toward developing a clear and understandable means of communicating their ideas through writing. Developing one's talent for writing requires diligent observance of thought and analysis.

The most important element of communicating your ideas to another, whether writing or speaking, is to formulate your thoughts in a consistent and orderly manner.

Writing skills are important to educational success and should follow these concepts:

- Is narrow in focus; presenting one's point clearly and precisely
- Presents information or argument based on sound critical thinking;
- Draws upon and properly acknowledges the work of others;
- Presents one's perspective in an organized fashion.
- Stays on topic

Students enrolled in RPI Bible College (especially those who will later seek ordination) who do not meet these basic skills in presenting their course requirement, may be asked to take additional courses in remedial presentation, acceptable to RPI's Board of Presbyters.

Reconciling Pentecostals International

Education for Eternity

Bible College Program

RPI Bible College and RPI's goal is to assist all individuals who are Spirit-filled, living a holy life and are in the process of answering his/her call to ministry in different capacities within their church, ministry, community, mission, etc., and others who have joined with RPI with a background in ministry. These candidates will be recommended by their pastor or other RPI Ministers who have had opportunity to observe the candidate's life and obvious call to ministry.

The candidate must be in good standing in their own local church and be living an exemplary life. The candidate accepted into this program will be expected to complete a course of study outlined by the RPI Educational Coordinator. The candidate will be accountable to a ministerial coach or mentor to be assigned by the educational committee.

Qualifications:

- Be baptized in water by full immersion
- Possess affirmation of a call to ministry, or desire to grow in Christian experience
- Have pastor's approval to enter the program
- Complete an application with supporting documents
- Be approved by the Educational Committee
- If this person is a minor, have parent's written permission to enter the Bible College if application is accepted
- Pay a non-refundable processing fee for application and course evaluation

Fees

Students entering Level I are required to complete an application for the RPI Bible College, and submit the application with a $25 fee to RPI Headquarters. Upon approval, they may begin Level I coursework. Each level should be completed within a two-year period, and fees are $100 per year, payable quarterly. Additionally, all students who do not wish to seek licensure with RPI, but would like to complete ministry education through the RPI Bible College, will continue to pay $100 per year for each of the 4 levels. However, there are no additional fees for the RPI Bible College courses for those who receive licensure through RPI and whose annual dues are kept up to date.

Life Experience Credit

What is Life Experience Credit or Credit for Life Experience?

Life Experience Credit has been loosely defined by some as; “The philosophy that Academic Credit is given for what you know, without regard to how, when or where the learning was acquired.”

Life Experience Credit

RPI Bible College Students, who are enrolled in RPI Bible College, may apply for Life Experience Credit. Life Credit may be earned for verifiable experience in your given area of study. Credit may be earned for learning experiences as outlined in this category of learning.

Generally speaking, you can earn three (3 credit hrs.) credit hours for every documented category of experience. Example: Please be aware that conducting one Workshop will not constitute a three (3 credit hrs.) hour credit. Conducting workshops, seminars, trainings, would be a category and would be given credit to the extent of the material in the workshops, etc, the time given to preparing and presenting the workshops, etc. and the audience/place. Again, for example, preparing and presenting a workshop at your own local church would not earn as much credit as one prepared and presented to another church or a group of churches or in another venue.

Evaluation, Review and Processing

Any student desiring Life Credit must have an evaluation completed on the Life Experience material submitted. An evaluation examines your credits from other institutions, other documented life experiences you have had and verifiable experience in your chosen category of learning. An evaluation will determine exactly how many credits can be given for study at another learning facility and how many credits, if any, can be earned through life experience and other venues of learning/experiences.

Qualifier

The student learner must be at least 25 years of age and have been in ministry for a minimum of three to five years. This ministry could be in the form of pastor, assistant pastor, youth pastor, outreach, teacher, missions, written work(s), trainings, credit from ministry at other institutions, such as prison or street ministry, youth ministry, etc. as a leader or lay person. Exceptions to these qualifiers will be dealt with on an individual basis if deemed applicable.

Limitations

Regardless of the amount of life experience, be it experiential learning or written works, a student must receive some credit, determined by the educational committee and the Board of Presbyters, toward their educational requirements via RPI Bible College. This will be based on quality and quantity of previous work.

Applying for Life Experience

Along with the Application for Enrollment in RPI's Bible College, upon request, there will be an Application Form for Life Experience. This form can be presented to RPI Bible College any time during the training process. Once all requested documentation has been obtained, the Education Committee will inform you of their findings within 60 days from receipt of application and documentation. The Educational Committee will inform you as to the number of credits that will be applied for Life Experience documentation. The Educational Committee of RPI reserves the right to reject any request for credit from Life Experience not properly documented, and the limit of credit applied from all documented Life Experience.

Accepted Life Experience Work (All work must be documented)

1. Trainings (as the trainer or learner)
2. Teacher (Sunday school, Bible Study, Seminars, Workshops, etc.)
3. Mission Work under leadership of a church or Christian Group
4. Ministry (as stated above)
5. Written/Published Work (Books, Articles, etc.)
6. Attendance at another college (documented courses that correspond to RPI courses)
7. Other (as approved by the RPI Educational Committee)

Cost

There will be an application fee for Life Experience credit to cover the review, evaluation and processing of documentation. This fee will be based on the amount of material submitted for review and the student's ability to pay, as determined by the Educational Committee, in cooperation with RPI Board of Presbyters. At no time, will the fee, in addition to other cost, exceed the total cost of completion of the Bible College curriculum for their particular program.

Provisional or Probationary Status

It is the desire of RPI to recognize the life work and dedication of all Christian Workers in God's Kingdom. Therefore, RPI will provisionally recognize all credentials from other churches or organizations.

It is generally understood that there are many different denominations and beliefs within the Christian Churches. It is not the aspiration of RPI to in any way negate the life work and labor of any Christian Minister, however, the integrity of the doctrine and foundation of RPI must be secured.

Therefore, any fully ordained minister who enters into a covenant with RPI from a similar background shall be recognized as a provisionally ordained minister of RPI, and given a probationary period of one (1) year at RPI. Following this one (1) year probationary period, the work and contribution of that individual to the RPI organization shall be reviewed. If this work and contribution is satisfactory, they shall then be fully ordained and licensed with RPI, subject to all RPI ministerial continuing educational requirements.

RPI Bible College Disclaimer

Reconciling Pentecostals International was founded on the basic principle of full inclusivity, including sexual orientation. We believe God calls those whom He will to preach the gospel, and minister in other areas as ‘laborers in God’s vineyard’. To this purpose, we have set forth a process to assist in preparing those who are ‘the called according to his purpose’. Each step in this process of learning and serving within your church and community will help the student to develop the servant’s heart. However, RPI Bible College, on the completion of all course work, does not guarantee any credentialing for ministry. RPI, as a religious organization, reserves the right to review each candidate for credentialing (Associate Minister, General Minister or Ordination) independently of the completion of RPI Bible College Courses. Once a student has completed the coursework, they will file an application with RPI for credentialing in their level of qualification, based on area of course completion. Their Christian character and work will be evaluated by their church, pastor and RPI, as needed. A minister’s license will be presented following the completion of the relevant courses AND evidence of the student’s standard of good Christian conduct, pursuant to the doctrine and teachings of RPI.

Non-Discrimination Statement

RPI Bible College is a Christian educational ministry that is dedicated to the cause of equal and fair treatment of all people. Therefore, we have set forth the following, as a guide for our pursuit for full inclusion and non-discrimination:

Discrimination

Reconciling Pentecostals International does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, gender identity, sex, sexual orientation, disability, or age in its education programs, and provides equal access to all persons seeking to expand their learning through RPI Bible College.

Disability Accommodation Statement:

RPI will attempt to provide accommodations to any student with a disability. A student with a "disability" may be an individual with a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities such as learning, seeing or hearing. Additionally, pregnancy or a related medical condition that causes a similar substantial limitation may also be considered a disability under the ADA.

Ministry Training involves four (4) Levels

Please note, that the RPI Bible College offers Certificates of Completion for each level of study, which are separate from licensure by the RPI Board of Presbyters.

Licensure is handled by the RPI Board of Presbyters. Students who have completed Level I courses may apply for a Minister-In-Training license from the RPI Board of Presbyters.

When a student has completed Level I Courses, they will receive a Christian Workers Certificate from the RPI Bible College and may then apply to the RPI Board of Presbyters for a Minister-In-Training License, if they wish to do so. After completion of Level II Courses, a student will receive a Certificate for Practical Ministry from the RPI Bible College and may subsequently apply to the RPI Board of Presbyters for an Associate License. For completion of Level III Courses, a student will receive a Certificate for Pastoral and Church Leadership from RPI Bible College, and they may apply to RPI Board of Presbyters for a General License. Students who have completed Level IV Courses will receive a Certificate in Advanced Leadership from RPI Bible College and will then be eligible for Full Ordination from the RPI Board.

Level I Courses – learning basic foundational principles of Christian living, personal growth, church doctrine and biblical history. (Christian Worker)

Level II Courses – expands on level one learning and additional church history, doctrinal studies, preparing for ministry and missions and spiritual development through prayer, fasting, studying. (Practical Ministry)

Level III Courses – Students broaden their knowledge in doctrine, biblical understanding, ministry, pastoral discipline, Christian education and leadership principles. (Pastoral & Church Leadership)

Level IV Courses – study at this level prepares the minister for higher levels of leadership within the organization, church, and mission field. (Advanced Leadership)

Additionally, students are required to read through the bible for each level of licensure.

Please remember that all fully ordained ministers are expected to submit documentation of continuing education through book reviews of their personal choice of study and/or submitting notes/handouts from classes taught at conferences, etc.

Categories in RPI Course Studies

Students are expected to complete assigned courses from the following categories of study:

CL	Christian Life
CM	Conflict Management
AP	Apologetics
CHS	Church History & Christian Development
DS	Doctrinal Studies
GM	Gospel Ministry
LP	Leadership Principles
MM	Missions
DV	Diversity

Students MAY NOT by-pass any level without PRIOR written permission from the RPI Board of Presbyters. All students are expected to progress through each level, beginning with Level I.

Students are expected to satisfy the requirements for their specific level of study from each category.

A description of each assigned course along with the book requirement is outlined in the back of this manual. Please be sure that you have matched the assigned course with the specific description and book requirement.

Students may utilize the blocks conveniently provided beside each course listed in their category of study to place a check mark and keep a record of the work they have completed.

Students will be given a progress report following the completion of each category of study within their program. Example: If you are studying for Level I, when you have completed CL100 and CL102, you will be given a report. If you complete CL 100 and AP 102, you will receive acknowledgment for progress through Apologetics, but not Christian Life, until you also complete CL102.

Level IV - Advanced Leadership

Churches can flourish under the direction of quality leadership, or fall for the lack thereof. Leadership characteristics may be a part of someone's natural personality; however, leadership skills must be learned. A charismatic personality may draw people, but it is leadership skills that assist a group of people in learning to work together as a team. In business, it is leadership skills that separate managers from administrators. Leadership is the highest quality of teamwork, emanating plans, and creating attainable goals.

Those seeking a position of leadership within any church or ministry should evaluate their ability to lead, and consider taking the following courses.

However, those seeking any leadership within the Fellowship of Reconciling Pentecostals International in any capacity will be required to complete the ten (10) courses listed below:

RPI and Student Contract Agreement

It is the goal of RPI Bible College to provide any individual, who feels the call of God on their life, with an excellent ministerial training commendable of that vocation. In order that we may commit ourselves to this reciprocal relationship, it is necessary to define the limits of both the student and RPI's Bible College responsibility to this endeavor.

Students will be required to submit an application and application fee to RPI Bible College. RPI's Educational Committee will review this application and accept or decline within Sixty (60) days of receipt of all documents and fees.

RPI Bible College will inform the student of acceptance and provide the student with a copy of the current catalog under which that student will complete their studies.

Students will be required to give timely reports, and NO REPORTS will be accepted within a one (1) month time span prior to their completion of their program or anticipation of credentialing. This is necessary for the Educational committee to assure that all fees have been paid and requirements have been met satisfactorily.

Any changes made by the RPI board or RPI Bible College Educational Committee SHALL NOT, consequently, change the requirements of any current students. Current students will continue to work on the course requirements as outlined in the catalog they received upon matriculation.

All requirements in the student's catalog of matriculation are binding.

Any student unable to complete their course work within the allotted amount of time, due to unanticipated and/or personal health or other reasons may submit a request for extension to the Educational Committee. The Educational Committee reserves the right to determine the extent of the encumbrance, and respond to the request within sixty (60) days. Any request for extension should be dated within thirty (30) days of the REASON for the request. All requests MUST be submitted in writing within the allotted time. All decisions by the RPI Bible College Educational Committee will be final.

The above statements shall constitute an agreement between the Student and the RPI Bible College Educational Committee.

Students may file a grievance with the Board of Directors of RPI if, at any time, they feel there has been any just cause for doing so.

WHAT IS A CRITICAL ANALYSIS?

The purpose for writing a critique (Critical Analysis) is to evaluate somebody's work, in this case, a book assigned as part of your particular course of study.

A critical analysis (Critique) is both:

1. Objective-referencing factual statements in the content of the book, etc., and also
2. Subjective-because it expresses the student's informed and educated evaluation of a text.

Your Critical Analysis should provide information, interpretation, and evaluation.

1. The information will help your examiner understand the nature of the work you have critiqued.
2. The interpretation will explain the meaning of the work, therefore requiring your correct understanding of it.
3. The evaluation will discuss your analysis of the work and present valid justification for your evaluation/opinions.

Analysis means to break down and study the parts.

The most important item in writing a critical analysis is that you understand that a critical analysis requires two steps: critical reading and critical writing.

A Critical Analysis will involve the following:

1. Identify the author's thesis and purpose
 2. Analyze the structure of the passage by identifying all main ideas
 3. Determine the purpose which could be
 - To inform with factual material
 - To persuade with appeal to reason or emotions
 4. Evaluate the means by which the author has accomplished his purpose
 5. How is the material organized?
- If the purpose is to inform, has the material been presented clearly, accurately, with order and coherence?
 - If the purpose is to persuade, look for evidence, logical reasoning and contrary evidence.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

Those completing all course work for each level: I, II, III, & IV, will be eligible to present their training and other documentation to RPI's Board of Directors for consideration for licensing at each level. Please refer to RPI Bible College Disclaimer for any additional information needed.
