Donations 2025

Tracking finances this year has been a challenge for treasurer Bob Gough. He had a couple of visits to the hospital and some periods of rehab. Mobility issues made it difficult to make the usual trips to our PO Box for incoming mail. Some donors worried that their checks weren't getting deposited. We think we are back on top of this process now and thank you for your patience.

Below is a listing of donors who supported the Association this year. If your donation is not recognized here, please write Bob (RobertGough10@gmail.com) or Editor Doug (pearsoda@uwec.edu).

THANK YOU ALL

Your donations make this newsletter possible. Your support also assures that the house is cared for and that we carry out the educational mission of the Association. Every membership and donation is a pledge for the future of the organization. You have a share in the work and the success of the Ager Association.

President's Update – Jan 2026

Association Members and Friends,

Happy New Year or Godt nytt år! On behalf of our Association officers and board, I hope you enjoyed a wonderful holiday season. Reflecting upon last year's events and accomplishments, we have much to be thankful for. We are excited about new opportunities in 2026. We sincerely appreciate the involvement and contributions of our many volunteers and members.

As shared in my last update, we seek to build upon past progress, but we need help to fill roles within the organization. We still have two vacancies on the Board of Directors, and we need a Secretary on the Executive Committee. Also, we need volunteers for our programs, facility, and library committees. If you are interested or know someone who may be interested, please let us know.

January is also the start of our annual membership cycle, and we ask that you please renew your membership. Your renewal ensures that our member roster is accurate and current, and it also assures that you will continue to receive the newsletter and program announcements. Additionally, membership dues remain a vital part of our organization's financial stability. Your dues support and provide access to our events and programs. As you know, the Ager Association (and museum) operate as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Our activities depend on volunteers. To realize our mission, we depend on your funding and your participation.

As always, we value your input and feedback, so please contact us if you have questions, recommendations, or would like to volunteer. Please visit our website (agerhouse.org) or Facebook for the latest information updates. We are looking forward to seeing you in the months ahead!

Warm Regards,
Chris Engen

November 15

Bakers and assistants assembled baking equipment and demonstrated the art of making lefse and krumkake. The event, held at the Altoona Public Library for the third time, attracted 40 interested (and hungry) guests.

November 30

The annual Advent at the Ager offered an array of Scandinavian foods—from meatballs to pickled herring, Swedish rye bread, Danish kringle, krumkake and rosettes. A cello recital and caroling offered joyful music. And, as guests departed late in the afternoon, the candle lights in the windows echoed the holiday spirit of the lights on the Norwegian-flag-decorated Christmas tree.

November 29

Mary Elworthy, Deb Jarvar, Sue Pearson, Barbara and Andy Shafer presented an art sale that included prints, photos, watercolor paintings, work in oil, greeting cards, and books by the artists.

The weather at the end of the day turned grim—snow and cold. The artists decided not to pack up their unsold work until Monday. Then they rearranged the basement displays and moved Elworthy's works to the basement. This turned out well because guests who came to the Advent at the Ager event the next day (Nov 30) were able to view and buy the art. The sale had an unexpected second day.

Move the Stabbur

Here's the stabbur being delivered to the Ager parking lot. It cost $350 to move the stabbur to Eau Claire. It will cost a lot more than $350 to settle the stabbur on the west side of the museum. Please help fund the move. Send donations to the Ager Association.

Note: If you want to help fund the move, please note stabbur on your check. Or donate online at agerhouse.org.

Little Free Library

The Ager Museum now has a functional Little Free Library. Readers are encouraged to take a book and leave a book. It appears that we have several people reading Ager's novels. They have been coming and going since October.

Ager and Rølvaag

Waldemar Ager and Ole Rølvaag

By Bill Ager

Waldemar Ager and Ole Edvart Rølvaag had a long and enduring friendship and mutual respect in their dedication to preserving Norwegian-American identity through literature, education, and cultural work. Though Ager was a newspaper editor and activist in Wisconsin and Rølvaag a novelist and professor of Norwegian language and literature at St. Olaf College in Minnesota, both were deeply concerned with the immigrant experience, the tension between assimilation and heritage, and the cultural responsibilities of the Norwegian-American community.

Ager admired Rølvaag's literary achievements, especially Giants in the Earth, and promoted his work, while Rølvaag respected Ager's tireless advocacy for temperance, language preservation, and cultural pride. In their personal time, Ager and Rølvaag exchanged letters and shared thoughtful conversations about literature and faith. And the two liked to fish together.

Membership

The Ager Association operates a museum and a library. The mission is to celebrate the legacy of Waldemar Ager and provide opportunities to study and discuss Nordic languages, history, literature, culture and genealogy.

Recently, the Ager Board changed membership levels. Single/household $40. Life memberships remain at $1,000. Memberships are for the calendar year—January 1 to December 31.

The Board hopes that members will renew now (envelopes included with this mailing) and that members will also donate to various Ager initiatives such as the building fund, the move-the-stabbur fund, the general fund, the memorial funds (designated by donors as in memory of or in honor of).

February 10 | Jerry Poling, former journalist and publicist, has published books about UW-Stout, Hank Aaron, and the Green Bay Packers. His new book, The American Birkebeiner, reveals the history of the event through pictures, interviews, document research, and his personal experience of participating in 25 Birkies.

March 11 | Tulla Froyen's grandfather was E.E.Lobeck, a friend and associate of Ager. Both were very active in the temperance movement. Lobeck served in 1906 on the Board that named Ager as manager, editor and owner of Fremad Publishing. For her book Across Minnesota in All Directions, Froyen spent hours at the Ager Museum and library with the research assistance of Ager member/librarian Miriam Hansen.
