

Norwegian Holiday Food Baking Demonstration

Join members of the Waldemar Ager Association for a demonstration of how to prepare two traditional Norwegian foods: krumkake and flatbread. Krumkake is a cone-shaped waffle cookie made of flour, butter, eggs, sugar, and cream that is often made in preparation for Christmas. Flatbread is a thin, crispy, cracker-like bread typically served with a layer of butter also enjoyed around the holidays.

When: Saturday, December 2, 1:00 to 3:00pm

Where: Altoona Public Library, 1303 Lynn Ave, Altoona, WI 54720

Who: Anyone interested in learning about how to prepare this Norwegian holiday food. This event is open to the public. Participation is limited to 30 on a first-come basis.

How: Sign-up to attend by calling the Altoona library at 715-839-5029 or add your name to the roster at the front desk.

Formed in 1993, the Waldemar Ager Association supports the communities we serve through several goals:

- Celebrate and promote Nordic culture.
- Preserve and study the literary works of Waldemar Ager.
- Maintain the Ager house as a representation of an 1890's Victorian cottage in Eau Claire.
- Share and promote immigrant cultures in the Chippewa Valley.

Learn more at <https://agerhouse.org/>

Waldemar Ager Association, Inc.
Waldemar Ager Museum
National Register of Historic Places
Ivar Lunde, President