Greetings Rick!

WELCOME TO YOUR CUSTOM CRAFTED COSMIC OPERATING MANUAL!

Did you know that the Universe makes your exact humanoid model on this planet, in this dimension ONLY ONCE, every 26,000 years or so? That is how special we ALL are individually, regardless of our appearances, level of consciousness and circumstances,

What is a Birth Chart?

A birth chart (also known as "natal" or "star" chart) is like a snapshot of the what the sky looked like at the exact moment you were born, including which planets and cosmic bodies were where in your astrological "houses" and their relationship to each other, among other more complex details.

Reading your birth chart is a fun and enlightening way to get to know yourself a bit better! Your birth chart is a really great way to gain some deeper insight into personalities, strengths, weaknesses. Living in flow with the planetary alignments in my birth chart has eased my life drastically by showing me exactly what to focus on for my growth.

How Special are you, Rick?

SUPER SPECIAL! Before we explore the predestined energetic side of your specific humanoid model, let's look at how special you are... even from just your physical body's perspective.

On a high level, we have learned that our "human" bodies are only really 10% human.

Science stuff says that about 90 percent of the cells in the body are not really human. Instead, they belong to 75 - 100 TRILLION individual organisms, spread across 10,000 different species of life living in, on, and around us at this very moment. These nano civilizations attempt to constantly work in harmony to create our physical "3-D" presence and represent most of our body space.

So yeah, each of our physical bodies are hosting a diverse alien ecosystem, our own personal "Inner-verse"). And get this... each of your 75 - 100 TRILLION cells can do over 6 trillion tasks per second.

Your "human" body is amazing. You already have a mission. You already have a Purpose... Love yourself. Love "Now". Love life. Love others. Rinse... Repeat

What is Astrology?

For centuries, we humans have looked to the heavens for guidance. Astrology is one of the oldest and most complex sciences known to human history,

As a lover of all life and everything that makes us tick, I have been studying the theories of predictive human behavior in relation to Astrology my entire life. After over 3 decades of reviewing birth charts with thousands of people, the immense amount of knowledge and personal power contained within celestial sacred wisdom is undeniable to me.

Astrology can be used as a powerful and fun tool for understanding ourselves, others, and the world around us. Personally, I tune into this sacred wisdom in my own everyday life and have learned that having this information helps me live in flow with my own nature, not constantly fighting against it. I use astrology professionally to help clients understand the "Galactic Interventions" that I know affect all human behavior and character.

Astrology, put simply is the study of the correlation between the astronomical positions of the planets and events on earth. Astrologers believe that the positions of the Sun, Moon, and planets at the time of a person's birth have a direct influence on that person's character. celestial phenomena reflect or determine human activity on the principle of 'as above, so below.'

Why I do this

I believe that healing our planet begins and ends with healing ourselves.

Information is Knowledge, and Knowledge of Self leads to power shifts towards our positive universal alignment. We are all here for a purpose. As my energetic exchange to the Universe, I love helping people identify and address their own unmet needs, regardless of their circumstances. I even published a book to help others called "The Secret Path of Happiness" on Amazon. Here's a link:

<https://www.amazon.com/Secret-Path-Happiness-Earth-focused-Self-Directed-ebook/dp/B0992X6KHS>

Creating innovative, accessible New Earth-focused educational content like this is an aligned passion for me. I also get a real cosmic charge out of supporting and participating in the New Earth resource-based economy. As such, I heavily rely on "energetic exchanges" with New Earth Co-creators and supporters to continue my mission.

Thank you for taking the time to put yourself first. If you find this helpful and wish to participate in Energetic Exchange, please share my services with people you care about and consider supporting New Earth Co-Creators striving to make a difference.

I Am Forever Grateful for just sharing good vibes and for you being YOU!

Your Natal Chart Report

Most of us are familiar with our Sun sign and its basic characteristics. This is the sign you see when you look up your horoscope. What many people don't know that we actually have ALL of the signs somewhere in our charts, and depending on where they are placed (in which houses) will mean different things for each of us individually

What follows is your personal natal chart information, as well as some general interpretations of the positions and aspects in your chart. With this report, you'll find out the positions of the planets in your natal chart by sign. Each paragraph of interpretation refers to an individual position in your chart.

Some Important things to know:

- There is no "good" or "bad" information here. It's all just information. All these positions and aspects are some of the "parts" that make up a "whole"—you! The negative side of our charts outline where our internal "shadow work" is in our lives. Having this information, along with your cosmically gifted positive strengths gives you powerful information to face your work head-on.
- All this info coming at you at once may be overwhelming. Reading and interpreting your birth chart at once would be like trying to drink water out of a fire hose. Try taking on this information on in small doses, reread this often, allow yourself space to reflect and grow.
- Some of these interpretations may be contradictory, just as people are contradictory. A person can be timid in love and aggressive in business, for example. As well, we evolve and grow throughout our lives, facing challenges that help us to handle our positions and aspects in a different way.
- We all have choices. Free will and environmental factors all come in to play. and one of the major benefits of astrology is the chance to understand ourselves so that we can work with our natal charts and improve ourselves in a universally conscious way

- You can obtain some of this information anytime for yourself and anyone else online at several websites like <https://astro.cafeastrology.com>

Please use this as a starting point and do some further reading into your chart by checking out my Birth Chart Page at <https://rickbroider.com/birth-charts> , and by reading astrology books and other online resources.

The following tables show the TECHNICAL details of your natal chart, personalized based on your birth data. Anyone who is familiar with birth charts can interpret results from these tables, so please hold on to them for future reference.

The real good stuff comes after these following tables, where you'll find your personalized birth chart report with my interpretations below.

The Planet's Positions

Each of the planets and celestial bodies have their own characteristics and elements that they influence/govern. For the purposes of Birth charts, the Sun, Moon and Pluto are counted as planets and, again, we each have all of the planets somewhere in our charts. In which houses and with which star sign will determine what that means for you.

Here were the planet positions as they relate to the houses at the time and location of your birth, by sign and degree.

The Planet's Aspects

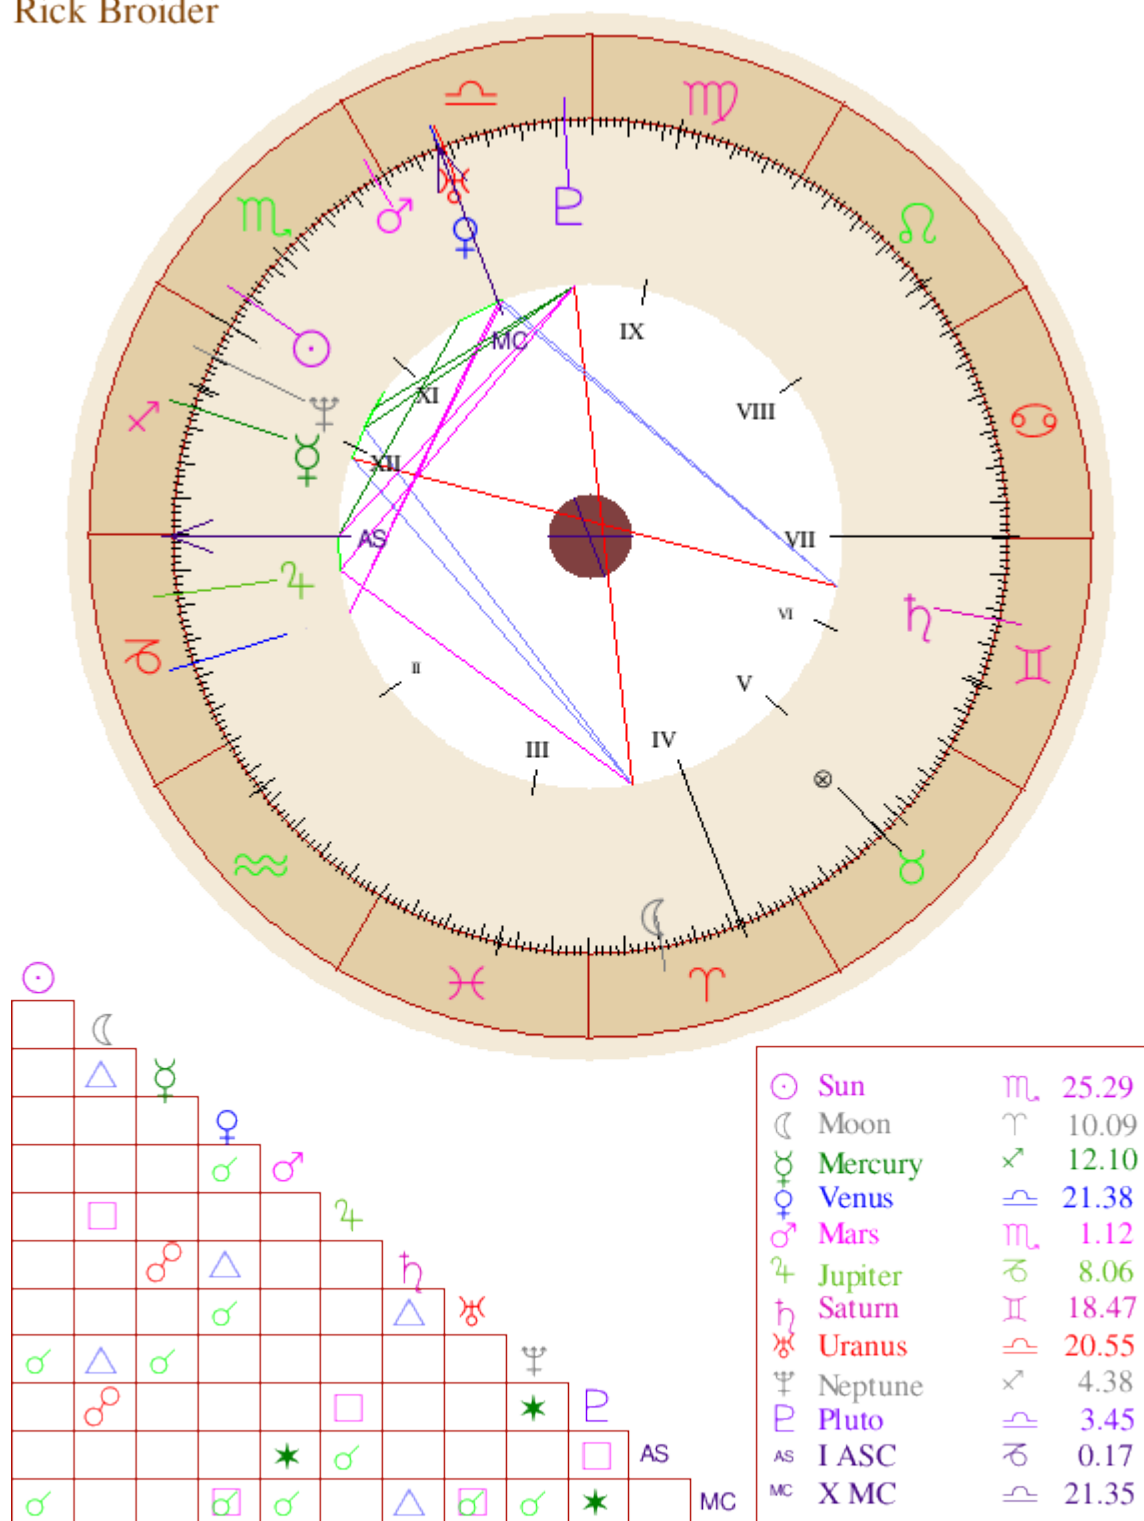

The following table shows the planetary aspects in your natal chart. Interpretations of these factors are found after these sections.

Note: The numbers listed under the column "Value" serve as a relative rating system for each aspect and are determined based on the planets involved, the aspect type, and the orb of influence.

Negative values suggest more stressful or challenging influences while positive numbers show more flowing, easy energy.

The Houses

This is where things really start happening in your Birth Chart. Following just your Sun sign horoscope can only give you so much information about your galactic programming. It All comes down to which of the 12 Houses the planets were in at the exact time and location of your birth. Your potential positive and negative aspects are signified by each house.

Determining which planet was in which house at the time of your birth suggests how the different aspects of our lives will manifest. Here is the basic representation of the houses.

NOTE: As you will see, I spend a lot of time on House I, as your ascendant sign is one of the most telling aspects of your chart.

- House I - The first house is the very important area of self-identity. This is where you will discover your "Ascendant" or "Rising" sign. Amongst your Sun and Moon sign, your Ascendant sign traits are the most overt and obvious to others.

The ascendant is a symbol of how one acts in life. It is the image of the personality as seen by others, and the attitude that one has towards life. The ascendant sign is aptly considered to be the automatic response we have to our environment.

Often the Ascendant persona is the one that was forced upon us by family conditioning. For example, parents may label their Libra Ascendant child the "nice" one; their Aries Ascendant child the "independent" one; and their Pisces Ascendant child is generally the space cadet of the family. We adopt these roles as familiar ones, and often carry them with us as our defense mechanisms, in some way or another, for the rest of our lives.

Rick is a Scorpio Sun sign with Ascendant in Capricorn–

With Capricorn rising, you're one of the toughest Scorpions. Tenacious and unswerving, people with Scorpio sun and Capricorn ascendant consequently move forward on purpose. Therefore, this sign will be most effective and usually achieve everything they aimed at. To achieve this, they will show the necessary strength not only in face of others but primarily themselves, a process that might have begun early in the formative years of the Scorpio sun with Capricorn ascendant and further on accompanied them throughout their lives.

DETERMINED AND TIRELESS

Two contrasting characters collide in the combination of the Scorpio sun with Capricorn rising. As a result, characters are formed who are distinguished by their consistent manner and lifestyle. Consequently, Scorpio people with Capricorn ascendant can not only hard on those around them but also on themselves. Thus, the Scorpio individual with Capricorn ascendant can be seen as a tenacious person who is able to work hard and therefore achieves great aims in short periods of time.

Having most ambitious plans, this sign pursues set goals with amazing aspiration and exemplary determination. It is therefore no big surprise that Scorpios with Capricorn ascendant generally can go far in life. Once this sign has set their sights on a specific goal, there's no further deterring.

FORMED BY LIFE ITSELF

There's simply no surpassing the perseverance and consequence that unite in the combination of the Scorpio sun with Capricorn ascendant. This results in these people being hard on themselves and consequently on their environment as well if need be. Full of power, the Scorpio individuals with Capricorn ascendant are real go-getters for they never give up, pursuing their aims with surprising penetration until they reach them.

Capricorn Ascendant people project competence. They simply ooze it. These were the children who were considered the responsible ones. Sometimes, it was they themselves who looked around them and felt the need to be the structured, dependable, and responsible members of the family. So, often, Capricorn rising people adopted a strong sense of tradition, family, and responsibility at a very young age.

With ascendant Capricorn, you were born for responsible and serious work, perhaps too much so. Early in their childhood, life starts being a constant fight for the Scorpio sun with Capricorn rising, their early years being a hard road full of obstacles. In general, grown-ups are said to have an adverse impact on the young Scorpions with Capricorn ascendant, because their impression may create an utterly ego-centered person avid for power who lacks all necessary empathy in life.

In love you are balanced. You desire partners who renew your Scorpio passion with the tenderness, romanticism and enchantment to help offset your focus on work, and towards your love-life.

Capricorn rising people are generally big on family, and forever worry about security-for themselves and their dependents. They come across to others as hard-working, competent, and dependable people. What others may not see under that cool, even suave, exterior, is an inner struggle: they often ask themselves, "Am I doing enough?", "Do I deserve all of this?", "How can I make things better?"

They worry a lot about the future. If success seemed to have come easy to these folks, it hasn't. They just made it look that way with a patient, hard-working, driven personality. Some Capricorn rising people practice some form of self-denial. They know how to do away with the frivolous. Still, they'll spend money on the clothes they really want (the ones with the right labels, that is), and other status symbols.

Although they're rarely showy, their quiet air of success is often a result of conscious effort. Often, Capricorn rising individuals are success stories. Their childhoods may have been difficult, and they slowly, but surely, turn their lives around.

Saturn rules this Ascendant, and this generally means a kind of backwards way of living--as children, they are serious and bear a lot of responsibility; and as they grow up, they age beautifully, learning how to loosen up.

- House II - The second house is the area of material security and values. It rules money and personal finances, sense of self-worth and basic values, personal possessions.

Aquarius on House II - Success in professional life won't take place without the help of friends and protectors. While he may earn enormous amounts, he can lose almost as much. Best financial success through networking with others. Might succeed in business on the internet. Most profitable businesses may be unusual or innovative ones.

- House III - The third house is the area of social and intellectual learning.

Pisces on House III - Ideas are somewhat changeable, and his humor as well. Travel, sea voyages or work connected with the sea.

- House IV - The fourth house is the area of home, family, roots, and deep emotions/sense of self-worth.

Aries on House IV - Lots of authority within the family. He knows how to take the destiny of the family in hand, to take charge. He is very energetic, very strong, knowing how to cope with life's setbacks.

- House V - The fifth house is the area of creative self-expression, romance, entertainment, children, and gambling.

Taurus on House V - A pleasant home, a charming partner, loving and sweet children, nice little meals, pleasant evenings with the loved one -- the good life.

- House VI - The sixth house is the area of learning by material transaction.

Gemini on House VI - Good assistant, sales rep, jack of all trades. Weak point: the nerves, sometimes also the lungs.

- House VII - The seventh house is the area of one-to-one relationships such as marriage and partnership, and of social and intellectual action.

Cancer on House VII - This can point to a rather strong marriage or partnership, a nice little family.

- House VIII - The eighth house is the area of emotional security and of security of the soul.

Leo on House VIII - He is generous with others. Proud. It's wise to have regular check-ups on the heart and arteries.

- House IX - The ninth house is the area of learning that shapes the identity.

Virgo on House IX - He is devoted to all causes that bring comfort or help to people in difficulty.

- House X - The tenth house is the area of material action. The Midheaven represents the work one will do in one's life, the place one will take in the world of society. It becomes more important as one grows older.

Libra on House X - Contacts of all kinds will lead to social success, professional, through marriage, etc. He likes society life, friendships that could help professionally. Sometimes jobs connected with justice, but frequently involved with important and influential people.

- House XI - The Eleventh house - is the area of search for social and intellectual security.

Scorpio on House XI - His friendships tend to be intense and strong. There can also be strong feelings, never lukewarm or in between. He likes to debate endlessly with friends who don't share his ideas. The discussion can lead to verbal sparring.

- House XII - The twelfth house - is the area of education and of emotion. This is where we meet our karma, deal with endings, and sometimes where we bury things

Sagittarius on House XII - He should learn to let go, be spontaneous, and enjoy himself more often. He might be tempted to stunt or drop his studies. He can be inclined to keep his spiritual beliefs to himself. In extreme cases, there could be problems abroad.

The Planets

For ease, the Sun, Moon and Pluto are counted as planets and, again, we each have all of the planets somewhere in our charts. In which houses and with which star sign will determine what that means for you.

The SUN ☉

Description: The sun sign is what most people know as their primary Horoscope Sign, and for good reason. Our Sun sign represents our main characteristics and ego. Thus, some astrologers believe that the ascendant signifies a person's awakening consciousness with Ascendant Libra

The SUN ☉ is in SCORPIO

Scorpios are known for their intensity. They are determined folk that absolutely throw themselves into whatever they do -- but getting them to commit to something is rarely an easy task. In fact, it's better not to even try to "get them" to do anything. Solar Scorpios absolutely have their own mind. And, their primary motivation is unlikely to be prestige (like their Capricorn friends), or even authority (Leos can have that, too) --it's real power. Their power can absolutely be of the "behind the scenes" variety, just as long as they have it.

To others, Scorpios seem to have plenty of willpower. They probably do. Scorpios do know what they want, and they won't go out and grab it at the wrong moment. They simply sit back, watch (quite expertly), and then get it only when the moment is just right. This apparent patience is simply their powerful skills at strategy at work. Scorpio isn't afraid of getting their hands (their bodies, their minds) dirty. The darker side of life intrigues them, and they're always ready to investigate.

Scorpios simply never give up. They have tremendous staying power. They're not in the slightest intimidated by anybody or anything. Confrontations are not a problem. In fact, talk to any Scorpio about their lives, and you'll probably be in awe at all they've gone through. Trauma seems to follow them wherever they go. When Scorpio learns optimism, instead of expecting the worst, they'll find that they possess amazing regenerative powers -- the power to heal, create, and transform.

Short description: Physical energy and courage. Strong passions. Regeneration and improvement. Strong sexual powers.

Potential issues: He is suspicious, defiant, extremist; he is sometimes vindictive.

Scorpio with ascendant Capricorn

Sun in XI: The Sun is in the eleventh house

You are a humanitarian who aims to treat everyone as equals. You seek to be unique and original, and you do your best to avoid bias and prejudice. Social status is less important to you than belonging to a group of diverse personalities. Your identity, in fact, is somehow linked to a larger unit than yourself. You have high hopes and goals, and tend to look at life in terms of opportunities.

You have magnetic appeal, as people sense your broad tolerance and openness. The friendships you establish are crucial to your development. If you identify too much with your friendships and your friendliness, you may become too impersonal and alienate those who would like to get close to you. Successful career thanks to support of patrons, friends or relations. You are a leader in groups and people look up to you.

41 Conjunction between the Sun and Neptune

There is an unmistakably dreamy, inspired, and sensitive side to you. A marked appreciation for music and the arts is present. The connection of Neptune with the Sun, which represents the ego and the will, certainly softens some of the hard edges that might be found elsewhere in the chart, adding a sensitive and spiritual dimension to your personality. You are naturally compassionate. It is so completely natural for you to accept that there is more to the world than what is before your eyes, that you tend to presume everyone must be spiritually inclined. Of course, you come to realize that this is not the case at some early point in your life. Your attraction to spirituality and metaphysical subjects is usually marked. These aspects favor writers, artists, and musicians.

You are sensitive to those who are suffering, although you are not usually taken advantage of. You are humanitarian and may have a special connection with animals. You are not one to dominate others or assert yourself to the point of brashness. You have a fertile imagination, are full of inspiration, and very emotional - all qualities that you may use on the professional level.

227 Conjunction between the Sun and Lilith

You are mostly comfortable with the darker side of your nature. A student of human nature.

The MOON ☾

Description: The Moon reflects our emotions, emotional responses, unconscious pre-destination, the self-image, and our Inner-verse. The Moon sign shows how we express ourselves when at ease and comfortable, holding neutral-positive energy. Your moon sign is actually considered your most important in Indian Vedic astrology.

The MOON ☾ is in Aries

Nothing quite happens soon enough with this position of the Moon. There is an inherent impatience with getting what they want. Life is a series of emergencies for Lunar Ariens. They live in the moment and have a hard time waiting for things to happen. Whims of the moment take absolute precedence in their lives. This is a fiery position of the moon. Even if the Sun or rising sign is more low-key, Moon in Aries people possess inner passion and fire.

Emotional issues take precedence--there is simply no pussyfooting around when it comes to dealing with the feelings. And dealing with new sentiments and needs stirs up a huge desire for activity. Moon in Aries has a need for acting out their needs, with no time to waste. It is hard for them to see the long-term, or to wait for things to happen. Instant gratification rules!

Oddly enough, this is a very defensive position of the Moon. These natives take things very personally, and they deal with problems by facing them right away so that they can then get on with other things. Their flare-ups generally end almost as quickly as they started. Lunar Ariens have an unmistakable independent streak. They put themselves right out there in the world and make an impression in whatever they do. Their self-confidence is variable.

Although a strong personality is projected, Moon in Aries people go through plenty of ups and downs. Their moodiness is not like Cancer or Pisces moodiness--they don't withdraw into themselves or escape the world when they're down. Instead, they are temperamental.

Moon in Aries people are prone to have plenty of crushes and other short-lived yet intense desires. "Needs" and "wants" are indistinguishable to Lunar Ariens at any given time. In their minds, what they want is so powerful that it becomes an absolute need

Others will appreciate that people with Moon in Aries rarely sulk or play any drawn-out games of manipulation. You can pretty much know what they want at any given time. They are generally ruled by their own emotional needs, and they're not always as concerned about others' needs during these "emergencies". Somehow, they have people around them scrambling to help them solve their problems. T here's an aura of childlike innocence around Lunar Ariens, even when they're getting their way again, that can be charming indeed!

Moon in III: The Moon is in the third house

Highly imaginative and may have difficulty concentrating. He fantasizes frequently.

Important studies may move around a lot and travel frequently.

You are very responsive, communicative, and curious. You can have a talent for imitating others and/or for picking up languages. You might either intellectualize your emotions rather than truly feel them and deal with them, or you communicate with excessive emotion. Some of you may do both at different times, and as you mature and develop, you learn to find a balance.

Your opinions and ideas change often, and you are so very sensitive to others' opinions. You might be quite nervous and restless, requiring frequent changes of scenery, even if the movement or travel takes place locally.

89 Trine between the Moon and Mercury

You can be quite expressive and animated in your speech. You have an outstanding memory and tend to pick up a lot of information from your environment. You love to chat and to exchange ideas. Even if you are shy, once you're friends, you love to talk about pretty much anything under the sun, and you enjoy sharing stories from your past! For the most part, you are focused on day-to-day activities in your communications rather than on grander philosophies. You are naturally curious and interested, and others find you very easy to talk to. You are accommodating and curious, and you are not as well equipped to handle heavy emotional demands.

You thrive on change and variety and are very curious about others. There is a twinkle in your eyes, and you are never short on humor. You are playful and versatile--you make a fun companion and an interesting friend.

You listen! Yes, you do talk and occasionally interrupt in your excitement, but you are a curious person who does want to hear what others have to say, and that is a real pleasure. In fact, you are more able than most people to get others talking, simply because you are very receptive and sympathetic. You pick up others' feelings and body language readily.

He has good judgement, a good memory. He is intelligent, imaginative, vivacious, and develops, adapts, and grows throughout life. This adds a youthful, lively quality to the personality. He may have an aptitude for, or interest in, learning foreign languages.

-46 Square between the Moon and Jupiter

He is sometimes indifferent to others, to those who surround him; he is sometimes careless, and perhaps a little negligent and indecisive. Sometimes enthusiastic and gung-ho, and other times indifferent, it can be challenging for others to understand him. Should look for constructive avenues for his inner restlessness. Wonderful sense of humor and big hearted.

34 Trine between the Moon and Neptune

Positive aspect: He is kind and sympathetic, with a strongly compassionate nature. When in love, he is usually very devoted. In fact, he is devoted by nature, not only in matters of the heart.

There is an unmistakably compassionate and understanding side to his nature. He has a natural affinity to music. While everyone enjoys music, people with Moon in harmonious aspect to Neptune respond to music as a vehicle to heal, relax, and to uplift the soul. Naturally perceptive, without even trying, he tunes into the feelings of others, and the mood of his surroundings. There is a distinct emotional need to escape into the world of imagination, and to withdraw from others at times when he needs to re-center himself, largely because he tends to "take in" a lot of mixed energies from his surroundings.

Strong and sudden "feelings" and hunches can overcome him. More often than not, his intuition is correct, although his imagination is also powerful, and he can read too much into a situation as a result. As an adult, he may be less experienced than most when it comes to reaching out for help.

-58 Opposition between the Moon and Pluto

He has intense emotions and passionate feelings. He fears the loss of control of emotional and domestic matters, and can fear change, upheaval, being caught unawares, having the rug pulled from beneath his feet. At the same time, he attracts change and disruptions. He attracts intense partners. There can also be big expectations of a partner or partnership.

MERCURY ☿

Description: Mercury is the first of the 3 inner planets (along with Venus and Mars), that represent our relationship with ourselves. Mercury is the planet of communication and is Famous for its retrograde (even though all Planets retrograde at some point),

MERCURY ☿ is in Sagittarius

Enthusiastic, humorous, and sometimes moralistic. He has strong opinions and will often be eager to share them! Democrat, philosopher, tolerant, respectful of laws. Interested in foreign places and learning more languages. Believes that everything teaches you something.

Enthusiastic, humorous, and sometimes moralistic. He has strong opinions and will often be eager to share them! Democrat, philosopher, tolerant, respectful of laws. Interested in foreign places and learning more languages. Believes that everything teaches you something.

Mercury in XII: Mercury is in the twelfth house

He does not speak just for the sake of it, but when in the mood, can talk a lot in a big burst of conversation. You are not very quick to speak or communicate in childhood, as you need to develop trust in your own abilities to express yourself. You make an excellent confidante- you are very discreet, and secrets go into the vault.

You might make matters too complex by overanalyzing motives or hunches, and then have problems acting on your intuition as a result. You are very attracted to symbols, sentiment, imagery, and paradoxes. You prefer not to focus on facts and learn best when ideas are presented visually, emotionally, or imaginatively.

Learning to communicate clearly is a challenge for you, but one that might put an end to feelings of guilt, of being misunderstood, and to attracting unpleasant situations or duplicitous people into your experience.

-45 Opposition between Mercury - Saturn

He is reserved, conservative, ambitious, and stubborn. Can spend a lot of time on communications and getting them just right. Whatever you say and write is self-censored to some degree. It's hard for you to pour out your emotions, no matter how emotional or needy you feel on the inside. This is because you are always aware of what others might think of you with what you say. You are careful with what you reveal to others. You make plenty of disclaimers, and often come across as negative or sarcastic without intending to. Self-consciousness and hypersensitivity is experienced with regards to your intelligence and/or ability to get ideas across to others, especially in youth. You need plenty of positive feedback from others to feel more confident and less "blocked".

Recognize that you are most likely harder on yourself about how you communicate than others are. Ask people close to you for an objective point of view. Chances are, they find you to be astute, intelligent, and an effective speaker or writer. You rarely accept compliments whole-heartedly, yet you crave them and need them. Others around you tend to stop complimenting you, feeling that you either don't need compliments or don't want to hear them. Nothing can be further than the truth!

69 Conjunction between Mercury - Neptune

He can put down in writing everything that his imagination and intuition dictates. A wonderful storyteller.

VENUS ♀

Description: The planet of beauty, love, and luxury, Venus represents an interest in emotions and values, exchange, and sharing with others.

VENUS ♀ - Venus is in Libra

Venus in Libra people will impress you with their kindness, evenhandedness, and willingness to make your relationship work. They have a polished manner in love, which sometimes makes them appear insincere or superficial. They are gentle lovers who hate to be offended.

They are threatened by bad manners and direct or abrasive expression of feelings. They not only prefer to choose the middle road, but they also seek the middle ground in their relationships. You can expect to be treated fairly, and you may be turned on by Venus in Libra's willingness to concede and adjust their lives to fully accommodate you.

Venus in Libra natives have idealized images of their relationships, even to the point where the relationship becomes bigger than life, taking on a life of its own. They can become quietly resentful if they feel they are being taken advantage of -- and they make it easy for more aggressive partners to bully them around.

Pleasing Venus in Libra involves treating them kindly and fairly. They love to share everything with you, so let them. Foreplay for them can be mental -- they love to communicate with you about the relationship. Sharing turns them on, and tactless or uncouth behavior is a turn-off. Although they seem to put up with a lot, be fair with them. Over time, imbalance in their relationship is sure to make them unhappy, and when it comes to this, they may try to even the score in subtle, roundabout ways. Don't let it come to that, and you will be rewarded with a lover who puts themselves in your shoes and treats you exactly how they would like to be treated.

Venus in X: Venus is in the tenth house

His best years may be in the parental home and also the last years of life. That said, the rest are not unhappy, but contain certain hurdles. Love can help in the professional life; he has a gift for seduction. He likes to entertain; he likes the comfort and attractions of home life.

Others tend to respect you for your charming manner, and you have many admirers, although some of these are admirers from afar, as there is an aura about you that is charming yet strangely (and intriguingly) distant. You have a great need to be recognized or admired for your charm, beauty, or loving manner, but should be careful not to become too wrapped up in what others think of you, as you might come across as phony or superficial. Some people with this position are "married" to their work or to their image. You are good at making contacts and organizing social events.

51 Conjunction between Venus - Mars

He is amorous, not a peaceful and calm lover but a passionate one with a strong temperament. He is demonstrative in love, and usually fully enjoys healthy pleasures and life to the full.

106 Trine between Venus - Saturn

He has a good grasp of reality and of duty. He is thrifty, reserved and usually not given to showing off. He likes truth and justice. In love, his sentiments are sincere and deep, he never plays false. He is, of course, faithful in love and friendship. He might love a much older person, appreciating that person's intelligence and good sense.

557 Conjunction between Venus - Uranus

Independent in love. His love life is rich, but possibly with passing love affairs. He can tire quickly and can fear losing his liberty. Traditional marriage may not be for him. He has that little something that attracts others. He likes amorous adventures or unusual pastimes, he is romantic, although a little detached or unpredictable. He is the eternal lover and is more likely to break something off than live untruly. He likes art, anything new.

The ability to get along with--and accept--people from all walks of life as friends is strong with this position. He can readily see-through insincerity in others. In relationships, tolerance is the most important "ingredient" to him. His sexual preferences can be somewhat unconventional, and he may not be happy with a partner who tries to limit his sexual expression.

He is usually quite capable of maintaining relationships that require a great deal of freedom and tolerance, such as long-distance romances or set-ups in which partners are unable to see each other consistently. His style in love can be somewhat free and breezy, and possibly noncommittal. He quite naturally accepts the idea that his partner might need some personal space and freedom.

418 Conjunction between Venus - Midheaven

He has good taste, an affectionate nature, his love is warm and deep, based on intellectual understanding and common tastes. His friends are useful in furthering his career. Good reputation in the professional world. Well-liked for what he does for a living.

MARS

Description: Mars, the fiery planet of action, motivation, power and physical energy.

MARS is in Scorpio

Mars in Scorpio natives love to challenge themselves to do the impossible. They throw themselves into what they decide to do with concentrated energy and awesome willpower. These people make formidable opponents, although often quietly so. They keep their cool and their equilibrium on the surface. Below the surface may be another story, and they are unlikely to easily let you in. Mars in Scorpio has the potential to exploit others--these people see through others and rely heavily on their gut feelings.

The sexual stamina of this position is thought to be the strongest of all the positions of Mars. Sometimes, Mars in Scorpio people are attracted to taboos, and their fantasies may involve blowing the taboos to smithereens! They enjoy scenarios in which the "other" is giving in to them, wants them completely, and will do absolutely anything for them. And their sexual appeal is strong enough that they generally do get what they want.

Real living, to Mars in Scorpio, is all about accepting challenges and making changes. These people constantly test themselves, and, often, others. They make all kinds of rules and goals, just for the personal satisfaction that comes from achieving or mastering them. Their survival instincts are strong, and they embrace their own animal nature when they are all alone with themselves, without guilt.

These people have a provocative quality to them. This quality is usually most evident in youth, though it is often carried over into adulthood in more subtle, controlled ways. Mars in Scorpio natives who have low self-esteem can become mighty twisted. Instead of beating themselves up, they turn self-loathing outward, and end up manipulating others and feeling resentful. Mars in Scorpio knows that life simply isn't fair.

Mars in X: Mars is in the tenth house

He devotes lots of energy to work, and this can continue well into old age. He is a dedicated worker, not afraid of getting down to it. May be somewhat self-conscious, avoiding small talk. May find making lighthearted acquaintances superficial. Can possess a serious mind, sometimes wishing to be freer and breezier.

Saturn in VI: Saturn is in the sixth house

He is a worker, very steady in all he does. He likes precision, method. He is serious and seeks continuity at work. He can focus on a job in the medical field where he will likely be successful, as he possesses all the necessary qualities.

51 Trine between Saturn - Uranus

He knows how to be on top of the situation. He perseveres, is determined but ingenious and original. He is very practical. He proceeds slowly but is always bound to achieve his objectives in the end.

26 Trine between Saturn - Midheaven

He is ambitious, but in a deliberate, calculated, well-balanced way. He is persevering, mostly serious, and orderly. He climbs the ladder slowly but surely; if need be, he is willing to change his ideas. He is wise and experienced.

URANUS ☿

The Planet Uranus represents individual liberty, egoistic liberty. Uranus is synonymous with innovative thinking, systems, and technology.

URANUS is in in Libra

Well-developed artistic leanings: his balance can be upset by too great an independence. Questions traditional approaches to relating and wants to do things differently.

Uranus in IX: Uranus is in the ninth house

Interested in humanity. He is highly intellectual. He travels a lot. His mind is always alert, even when sleeping, during which time he often resolves the problems of the previous day!

112 Conjunction between Uranus - Midheaven

He must have a job that allows him many freedoms, something non-routine. He likes change, possesses a lot of energy, and knows how to influence others in spite of his originality.

NEPTUNE ♆

The watery planet representing the depths of the ocean, Neptune reflects all that is hidden and deals with creativity and spirituality and represents spiritual, non-egoistic liberty.

Neptune is in Sagittarius

May especially enjoy long voyages, things foreign, being close to water. Altruistic, broad spiritual vision, humane, spiritual.

Neptune in XI: Neptune is in the eleventh house

Friendships are unselfish, and he very much wants to belong to a group of like-minded people or to connect with a higher purpose.

49 Sextile between Neptune - Pluto

He is perceptive and able to see layers to a situation. He is naturally drawn to learning what makes himself and others tick.

41 Conjunction between Neptune - Lilith

Love can dominate his life. He lives his love life to the fullest and can be very passionate. His partner may have problems on the professional level, but he is always there to give support. If the partner loses their job and their rhythm of life must change, he accepts this. He is a lover, and faithful - the most important thing is that they love each other.

PLUTO ♅

Pluto Finally, the smallest and furthest, Pluto is known as the planet of transformation, mysticism and death. Pluto represents transformations, mutations, and elimination.

Pluto is in Libra

May look for new ways to relate to others.

4 Sextile between Pluto - Lilith

He may lead a double life. He may have a secret love affair while having a good relationship with his partner. Most with this aspect, however, are highly perceptive and can keep a secret. Alternative views of relationships are likely.

-4 Square between Pluto - Ascendant

He may have a strong will, can pout and brood or dwell on problem areas.

Lilith

Black Moon Lilith represents our darker, deeper natures that may be repressed or buried.

Lilith in Scorpio

He may have felt uncomfortable regarding the natural need for intimacy, attachment, and depth contact. He can feel wrong expressing jealousy or possessiveness and attachment. However, learning to accept that these are natural, very human feelings can go a long way toward his self-acceptance. It can also put an end to extreme behaviors or tantrums in these areas.

North Node-South Node

The South Node represents our overdeveloped character traits. We are talented here but if we overdo this area of life or hold onto these traits to feel secure, we may stagnate. The North Node points to the qualities that we need to work on and develop to achieve inner balance and fulfillment.

North Node in Capricorn

In the first half of life, he may hold onto his past, childhood, or the freedoms of life when there are fewer responsibilities. He is sensitive, loyal, and wonderfully warm and nurturing. However, happiness and satisfaction come from accepting and embracing responsibilities. Denying his need to excel in the outside world has a way of holding him back. Learning to be more self-sufficient improves his life many times over.

North Node in I: North Node in the First House

He is brilliant at negotiating. He is learning to assert himself, express himself more plainly and confidently, and act with more independence. Moving out of his comfort zone for him is developing his autonomy, but it is a fabulous lesson that boosts his relationships. Once he learns to embrace his independence, close partnerships can be happier and more fulfilling. Fear of making poor decisions can keep him in a state of fear. It is better to make some poor decisions and bounce back than to stay in a state of limbo.

Qualities to Develop: boldness, decisiveness, independence, assertiveness.
